UPPER ADAMS' STATE AUDIT REPORT FILED FOR SCHOOLS

The report of the examination of accounts of the Upper Adams Joint School district and its member school districts, conducted by the state auditor general's office, has been completed and only Tyrone Twp. comes off without any flaws being found or recommendations made for better accounting practices.

The auditors note in their report that "due to the discontinuance of this joint school system, our comments and recommendations are included in this report for the benefit of the school directors of the successor entity." The successor entity is the new merged Upper Adams School District.

The state officials went over the records of the joint school district and of Arendtsville, Bendersville, Biglerville, Butler, McAllen and Tyrone Twp. districts for the year ended July 6, 1958, upon which more than $352,000 in state appropriations in the following year were based.

ONLY 2 SIGNATURES

In their report on the joint district records, the auditors noted that disbursements were not supported by school orders and only two signatures appeared on checks. Compliance with the school code in these matters is recommended. It was also found that the treasurer did not make monthly reports.

The auditors continued: "Our audit of transportation reimbursements to the member districts indicated lack of control in accounting for pupils transported and the distances these pupils reside from the schools. We were unable to determine from records available whether the districts were receiving reimbursements."

Boy Tied To Tree By Neck Left To Die By Abductor; Suspect Commits Suicide

BELLEVILLE, Ont. (AP) — Police maintained a tight silence today on the progress of their hunt for the kidnaper who roped 10-year-old Tommy McNevin to a tree by the neck and left him to die in the snow.

The biggest question mark hung over Tommy's scoutmaster, Warren Williamson, 41, a church elder and father of a son and daughter, who committed suicide Tuesday night after claiming the kidnaper had designated him to deliver the $25,000 ransom demanded.

Police refused to divulge the contents of Williamson's suicide note. But Crown Attorney (prosecutor) John Pringle said he had not believed Williamson's story of the ransom notes when he told it to him Tuesday and doesn't believe it now.

Tommy, son of a former alderman and creamery owner, left home Monday afternoon to play hockey and was not seen again alive. His body was found Wednesday. Coroner Dr. J. Russell Scott said the boy died from exposure sometime Monday night.

MOUNT SEEKS STATE AID FOR SCIENCE HALL

A million-dollar science building is in the planning stages for Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, and the Maryland State Legislature is being asked to contribute half of the cost. In a bill presented by Sen. Samuel W. Barrick, the Legislature is asked to authorize the state to loan $500,000 toward the construction. Msgr. William F. Culhane, vice president of the college, said that the Mount already has the other $500,000. The money is being sought on a matching fund basis similar to that used in granting money to other privately operated colleges and universities in the state. Msgr. Culhane said that plans are still in the preliminary stages, but that, if the present tentative schedule can be maintained, work should start on the new building by next January.

It has long been recognized that the science facilities would have to be increased at the school to keep pace with modern high education. The proposed structure will be in keeping with the architecture employed in other buildings on the campus. It will also be built of the same type of field stone. The structure will be three stories high and will be located between the present Pangborn Hall and the new library. It will have seven laboratories, three for physics, two for chemistry and two for biology, and six classrooms. The physics department will be located on the

BALLOTS FOR SCHOOLS WILL BE PROVIDED

The Adams County commissioners will continue their program of providing school ballots by which students in the 9th through 12th grades in the county will "vote" in the "primary elections" for the same candidates as those for whom their elders will vote in the May 16 primary.

The commissioners, it was announced today, have asked Superintendent of Schools C. P. Keefe to check each of the public and parochial high schools in the county to determine the number of Republican and Democratic ballots needed from each district. Under the plan each student will vote on a ballot similar to that prepared for the district in which he resides. The program was begun about a year ago as an educational venture to provide instruction to future voters.

PLANS NOT READY

Crosby H. Hartzell, clerk of the commissioners, said he anticipates about 2,500 ballots will be needed for the school children's voting. The ballots will be marked "school ballot" to avoid confusion with the actual ballots to be used by the adults.

The commissioners announced they have reached no decisions so far on proposals to renovate the courthouse and possibly move some offices to other locations. With increased business and increased numbers of records to be stored, most of the county offices have become more and more crowded in recent years.

CHANGE OF CLASS

It is anticipated that space may be provided for a sheriff's office at the court house. Increased toilet facilities are also contemplated. Among plans being discussed is removal of the county agent's office to larger quarters outside the courthouse.

The Adams County Historical Society will move from its present quarters in two rooms and a vault in the basement which will permit changes in the basement, including some possible enlargement of the space for Court Room No. 2 in that area, according to present thinking.

Attorney Charles Wolf met with the commissioners Wednesday at the courthouse to discuss possible changes to be brought about by the changeover of Adams County from a seventh to a sixth class county this year.

This material first appeared in 1955 in a column written by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen. The Houston, Tex., police department has been distributing it since that time as a means of combating juvenile delinquency.

1. Begin with infancy to give the child everything he wants. In this way he will grow up believing the world owes him a living.
2. When he picks up "bad" words or "dirty" words, laugh at him. That will make him think he is "cute." He will run off and pick up some other words that will blow the top off your head.
3. Never give him any spiritual training until he is 21 and then let him decide for himself. By the same logic, never

U.S. Military And Naval Units Believed Speeding To Strife-Torn Laos Area

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy apparently began speeding U.S. military units toward crisis-racked Southeast Asia today in the crucial hours of a diplomatic showdown with Russia over the embattled kingdom of Laos.

Kennedy is expected to issue a major U.S. policy statement on the Laotian crisis at a news conference tonight—6 p.m. EST.

Meanwhile the President awaited some reaction from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to an urgent appeal from Britain for agreement to a cease-fire in the civil war in Laos. Given a cease-fire, the Western powers would accept a Communist-backed proposal for an international conference on Laos.

HOPE FOR SETTLEMENT

This last-minute move on the diplomatic front was made by Britain after consultation with the United States. It kept open the road for a negotiated settlement and put the next step up to Khrushchev.

Meanwhile the reported military moves underscored Kennedy's determination to deal with the Communist threat by force if diplomacy fails.

One of the tightest secrecy clampdowns since the Korean War shut off Pentagon information on military moves.

Authorities here said privately, however, that some of those moves were clearly precautionary steps, others were designed to begin a substantial increase in U.S. military assistance to the royal Laotian government.

DEMOCRATS PONDERING CHOICE OF 4 POSTMASTERS

Adams County Democrats, in position to dispense federal patronage here for the first time in eight years, are reportedly in the process of naming Gettysburg's next postmaster with three other county post offices also presently filled by "acting" postmasters.

Reports persist that the Gettysburg postmastership may be filled soon and two names are mentioned prominently with another half dozen reportedly "in the running" or actively seeking the position.

The names most frequently mentioned are those of Charles W. Pentz, 709 Johns Ave., an employee of the state employees' retirement board at Harrisburg, and Roy E. Coldsmit, 150 York St., local roofing contractor. WORTH OVER $6,000

Democratic County Chairman Fred G. Klunk could not be reached for a statement on the pending appointments and Democratic State Committeeman L. C. Pittenturf, York Springs, said at noon today he had no information on the postmasterships. He could not say how soon the selections may be made.

Jacob G. Appier was named acting postmaster at the local office two years ago and three times his nomination was sent to the U. S. Senate for confirmation by former President Eisenhower. It was on a list before the Senate when President Kennedy took office in January.

The Gettysburg postmastership, the best paying job of its kind in the county, pays between $6,000 and $6,500 a year.

If and when the Democrats make a selection, the appointment would be temporary until the appointee could take an examination and then have his appointment confirmed by the U. S. Senate.

JURY GIVEN FINCH CASE

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A jury of 10 men and 2 women starts work today on an assignment two previous juries failed to complete—reaching a verdict in the Finch-Tregoff murder case.

Jurors in the third trial of Dr. R. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff received the case late Wednesday after more than two months of testimony. But deliberations were delayed and the jury was locked up in a hotel for a night of rest.

Dr. Finch, 43, and Miss Tregoff, 24, the doctor's secretary-mistress, are accused of murder and conspiracy in the July 18, 1959, gunshot death of Finch's socialite wife, Barbara Jean, 36.

The first two trials ended in deadlocked juries.

In California, conviction of first-degree murder is punishable by life imprisonment or death in the gas chamber—at the jury's discretion. The second-degree count carries a penalty of five years to life.

The penalty on the conspiracy charge is the same as first-degree murder.

Monday Last Day For Registration

Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock will be the last day to register for the May 16 primary, the county commissioners reminded today.

So far no great interest has been shown in registration for the primary at which the parties will name candidates for borough, township and school board officials. Commissioners' Clerk Ray J. Snyder said 61 Republicans and 46 Democrats have registered since the books were opened following the general election last November.

Monday will also be the last day when persons may give notice of moving to a new district and is also the last day on which anyone may change party affiliation.

Persons who will become 21 by May 16 may register by Monday.

teach him the English language. Maybe when he is old enough he may want to speak Bantu.

4. Praise him in his presence to all the neighbors: show how much smarter he is than the neighbors' children.

5. Avoid the use of the word "wrong." It may develop in the child a "guilt complex." This will prepare him to believe that when he is punished later on for stealing cars or assaulting women society is "against him" and that he is being "persecuted."

6. Pick up everything after him: his shoes, his books, his clothes. Do everything for him, so that he will be experienced in throwing burdens on others.

7. Let him read anything he wants. Have no concern whatever for what goes into his mind. Provide him with Lily cups for his lips, but let his brain drink out of any dirty container for words and ideas.

8. Quarrel frequently in the presence of your children. In this way they will be prepared for broken homes later on.

9. Give him all the spending money he wants; never let him earn his own.

10. Satisfy every craving of the child for food, drinks, and everything that has to do with the sense of taste and touch, gratifying every sensual desire.

11. Take his part against policemen, teachers, and neighbors. They are all "prejudiced" against your child.

12. When he gets into real trouble, always defend yourself and say: "I never could do anything with him."

INCREASE ENROLLMENT

Monsignor Culhane said that at present science facilities are spread about the campus. When the proposed building is ready for occupancy, rooms now being used for these classes will be devoted to other instruction.

The proposed science laboratory is part of the program of enlargement of the facilities at Mt. St. Mary's. Plans have already been completed for a Central Union building to house a dining room, snack area and general student accommodations, and for a new dormitory. These buildings will cost about $1,500,000.

Monsignor Culhane said that the program will increase the college enrollment about 100 more students for a total of about 770. He said the building projects are mainly to relieve the congested condition now at the school and to improve instructional facilities to keep abreast of the times. At the present more than 100 Mount students live off campus.

SHE AND HUBBY GET ALONG THO' THEY'RE APART

By JOY MILLER
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Alva Myrdal doesn't believe a good marriage depends on your spending every minute with your husband. Or even every month.

"Not when you consider the lifespan these days," she says.

Happily-married Mrs. Myrdal is her own case in point.

She's an attractive, blue-eyed, ash blonde mother of three grown children and wife of Gunnar Myrdal internationally known economist now teaching in Stockholm. She's also one of the world's top women diplomats: Sweden's ambassador to India.

SPEND WINTERS TOGETHER

With a good piece of the world separating them, she still manages to see a lot of her husband. He spends winters with her in New Delhi and she visits him oc-asionally at Oxford or Stockholm—wherever he's teaching.

Less commuting was required before she became ambassador 5½ years ago. Then he was in Geneva heading the U.N.'s Economic Commission and she was in Paris directing UNESCO's department of social sciences.

They should be together again soon. She's giving up her ambassador's job the first of April to work in Stockholm on special assignment for Sweden's foreign office.

REDS ABOLISH CENSORSHIP ON REPORTERS

By PRESTON GROVER

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today abolished censorship for foreign correspondents.

The Foreign Office press director made the announcement at a news conference.

The press director, Mikhail Kharlamov, said he expected the removal of censorship would create new troubles for correspondents circulating unfounded rumors about the Soviet Union. This appeared to be a direct warning that newsmen would be expelled if their reports were not satisfactory to the Soviet authorities.

MUST KEEP COPIES

Kharlamov warned that all correspondents must keep a copy of all their dispatches sent abroad so long as they remain in the Soviet Union. He explained that some correspondents had insisted that some copy published abroad under their names was not of their writing. By keeping a copy of what is sent out, the correspondent can always answer this question, he said.

States as one of 30 women from 21 countries participating in a five-day international conference at Vassar College that highlight the girl's school centennial celebration.

Censorship is being lifted, Kharlamov said, to expedite the movement of copy of the foreign correspondents, who he said had increased from 15 a few years ago to 150 now in Moscow on a permanent basis. About two-thirds of these write for Communist and Socialist publications.

Previously all non-Communist correspondents have been required to submit their copy to censorship before it could be telephoned or telegraphed abroad.

Censorship has been in force in the Soviet Union since the revolution in 1917, except for two brief periods. It was suspended briefly during the summer of 1939 but imposed again when the Soviet-Finnish war started. Another brief suspension came after the war in 1946. It lasted only a few weeks.

Kharlamov said that censorship has not yet been lifted on movement of photographs and television film.

PLASTIC WALL PUT IN HEART OF LITTLE GIRL

BROWNS MILLS, N.J. (AP)—

"I'm okay," is the word from Joyce Okun, 13, of Flushing, N.Y., after she underwent an operation for a double heart defect unique in medical history.

Authorities at Deborah Hospital said Joyce was in good condition with a newly inserted plastic wall in her heart. She will be discharged in two or three weeks.

Doctors said she would not have lived past her teens if she had not been operated on.

The girl at first was believed to have a hole in the wall between the two upper chambers of her heart, but when the operating team opened Joyce's chest last Friday they discovered two distinct heart defects, each of which was extremely rare.

HAD NO WALL

There was no wall between the upper chambers of her heart, so that instead of having a normal four-chamber heart, the girl had two normal lower chambers and a single upper chamber.

The second defect was a condition known as total anomalous pulmonary venous drainage. In a normal heart, two veins from each lung bring blood to the left side of the heart. In Joyce's case, the four veins had come together to form one blood vessel that entered the heart on the right side.

Dr. Dryden Morse of Moorestown, who led the team of surgeons, described the operation Wednesday. He said he had never encountered or heard of a case in which both defects occurred in the same patient.

During the 4½-hour operation surgeons put a new wall of plastic cloth into Joyce's upper heart, artificially creating the normal two chambers. Then they moved the pulmonary vein chamber from the right to the left side of the heart and repaired the hole caused by the transfer.

Girls Receive Sports Awards At High School: With nearly 300 girls participating, Gettysburg High School girls won the soccer game, 10 of 16 volleyball games and seven of eight basketball games during the fourth annual Gettysburg-Hanover Play Day staged on Saturday afternoon at the Gettysburg high school building. Hanover players won five of the seven table tennis matches.

The afternoon contests were followed by a sports dance in the evening with about 400 boys and girls in attendance. The varsity and jayvee basketball teams of Gettysburg high school were guests.

Fire Destroys Landmark In Union Mills: At 4:30 o'clock Sunday morning a fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the large three-story frame building 40 feet by 120 feet at Union Mills, Maryland, owned by Roy Kindig and occupied by a general store, doctor's office and barber shop.

The fire was discovered by passing motorists, enroute to Harrisburg, who aroused Howard Bankert, residing next door. He in turn called Mr. Kindig and nearby neighbors. The smoke and flames were then coming out of the rear windows of the store. The flames spread rapidly.

28th Division To Use Small Guns This Week: Indiantown Gap—The handling of automatic rifles and small guns, in preparation for the day when this 15,000-acre military post will whistle with their practice bullets, was the schedule laid out for the 28th Division this week.

The 13,000 troops will be continuing the type of drill started last week, the second in a 13-week program. The roar of the big guns was delayed for additional training, and won't be heard during March, the camp authorities decided.

Ed Strausbaugh New President Of Rotary Club: E. F. Strausbaugh, West Broadway, was elected president of the Gettysburg Rotary Club by the organization's board of directors following the weekly luncheon meeting in the YWCA, center square, Monday evening.

Other officers chosen at the same time were: Vice president, Paul Kinsey; secretary, N. B. Schurman; re-elected; treasurer, Calvin Shank; and sergeant-at-arms, Samuel G. Spangler.

Participants Announced For Music Contests: Participants in the 14th annual Adams County Music and Forensic league contests to be held in New Oxford on Thursday evening were announced today by C. P. Keefer, supervising principal of the New Oxford schools and contest director.

Approximately 250 students from high schools in Biglerville, East Berlin, Gettysburg, New Oxford and York Springs will take part in the competition. There are 18 music contests and five speech events on the state program, but the county competition on Thursday will take place in only eight music and two speech events.

Want Cruiser To Bear Name Of Gettysburg: A resolution asking that one of the Navy cruisers "under contemplated construction" be named "Gettysburg" was adopted at a meeting of the Past Presidents' Association of the Patriotic Order Sons of America of Adams county at a regular meeting with Camp No. 22 in New Oxford Monday evening.

The lodgement reviewed Gettysburg's claims to fame and found "it is both fitting and proper that the defense agencies of the United States of America should carry upon the high seas, along with the Stars and Stripes, the name of Gettysburg."

Today's Talk

"I AM ONLY ONE"
What a big world we live in—even though it is but a speck in comparison to other heavenly bodies.

How small we look and seem as we go down to the crowded city street—but one of thousands! But when you stop to think and remember that the very car you are driven in, the elevator that carries you up to your office, the electric lights which enable you to read, the telephone at your elbow—that these and scores of other inventions are the products of individual units like yourself, you may take heart and strive anew.

You may say that you are "only one"—but Jesus, Cromwell, Lincoln, Franklin, Edison were only one!

It just happens, however, that the more individual and the more sympathetic and the more desirous for service a man becomes, the truer it is that he becomes a thousand, or a million individuals bounded as one. And so he thinks in the terms of them.

"I am only one—but there has never been anyone exactly like me!" You may say that with sincere truthfulness. Think of your opportunity. Take an invoice of your abilities. Then go ahead and do what you do better than it has ever been done before. Let that be your ideal.

I came across a very apt quotation from Edward Everett Hale the other day. It fits the idea of this brief Talk. Here it is: "I am only one, But still I AM one. I cannot do everything, But still I CAN do something; And because I cannot do everything, I will not refuse to do the something that I can do!"

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Myself"

Just Folks

ESTATE
My dream of joy lies not in me, But in the man that is to be, And in the woman, fond and fair, Who now ties ribbons in her hair, And races up and down the floor As all the little girls of four.

I've had my bout with wealth and fame; Not much is left for me to claim. What is to be my future lies Behind his wide and eager eyes, And in her little hands which seek At night to stroke my grizzled cheek.

A boy and girl hold my estate, To make it poor or make it great. All joy, all pride which are to be Through them alone must come to me.

The man and woman time shall know, My life can crown or overthrow. My triumph counts for little now. What lies behind that rounded brow

Of boyhood, and what is in store For that glad little girl of four, Today are more important far Than all my self-planned battles are.

HEAR PRINCIPAL

Elmer W. Gail, PTA program committee chairman, introduced the speaker, George Thomas, who is principal of the Westminster Junior High School. His subject was "Adjustments an Elementary Student Must Make When Entering High School." The speaker stated that a junior high school is an educational institution for the training of preadolescent children with the purpose of giving them basic knowledge in different fields. He stated that during this transition period, the number of teachers the child encounters increases as well as the subject areas, with moving from class to class a part of the adjustment. The pupil needs to develop self reliance by being prepared for each day's work; he needs to think of conduct, mastery of classroom work, reviews, home study, extra things and participation. He must develop social adaptability and meet competition and must have acceptance of physical growth patterns. At home, the pupil should be helped by his family. All should attend school and community activities together and keep abreast of what is going on. Each child should also have some responsibility in the home. School helps by giving the individual orientation and counseling services. Parent-teacher contacts are also valuable in studying the individual pupil's problems.

LENTEN PRAYER FOR TODAY

from Go With God BY JIM BISHOP

Charles Dickens (1812-1870) won enduring world fame with "David Copperfield," "Oliver Twist," "Great Expectations," "Old Curiosity Shop" and other novels depicting life among the English lower and middle classes. His evocation of the sights, sounds, and smells of London is unmatched in English fiction; and his powerful, often satirical stories—some based on his own life—helped bring about much-needed social reform in England. His "A Christmas Carol," written in 1843, is the most famous of his short stories.

Hear my prayer, O Heavenly Father,
Ere I lay me down to sleep;
Bid Thy angels, pure and holy,
Round my bed their vigils keep.

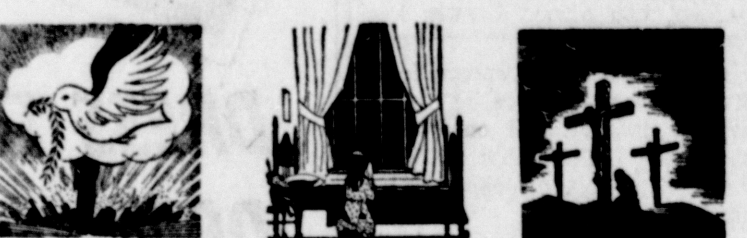

My sins are heavy but Thy mercy
Far outweighs them every one;
Down before Thy cross I cast them,
Trusting in Thy help alone.

Keep me through this night of peril
Underneath its boundless shade;
Take me to Thy rest, I pray Thee,
When my pilgrimage is made.

None shall measure out Thy patience
By the span of human thought;
None shall bound Thy tender mercies
Which Thy holy Son has bought.

Pardon all my past transgressions,
Give me strength for days to come;
Guide and guard me with Thy blessing
Till Thy angels bid me home.

REPUBLICANS HIT LAWRENCE FOR FAILURE TO ACT ON AID

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., says the "Democratic administration in Pennsylvania has failed to secure" a federal grant of $10.8 million for medical relief to needy persons over 65.

He said Wednesday that the General Assembly in Pennsylvania would have to appropriate only $1 million in state money in order to receive the grant.

Meanwhile, in Harrisburg, House Republicans urged the administration of Gov. Lawrence to act to make the state eligible for federal aid for medical care to the aged enacted under former President Eisenhower's administration.

Failure of Gov. Lawrence to act on this program has been detrimental to Keystone State citizens said the resolution introduced Wednesday by Reps. Margaret S. Kooker, Bucks; Alvin C. Bush, Lycoming; Gerald S. Zember, Berks; Thomas W. King Jr., Butler; Alan D. Williams Jr., Bucks; and Austin M. Lee, Philadelphia.

The state administration has said it intends to await anticipated action by President Kennedy in this field.

Kennedy has favored a program of medical care for the aged under the Social Security Act. The Eisenhower proposal, passed by Congress last August, provides for straight grants.

By Mrs. Cloyd Willows, Mrs. Chester S. Byers, Mrs. Fred Geiselman and Mrs. Joseph Jago.

"Does Education Cost Too Much?" will be the theme of the program for the next meeting on Tuesday, April 18. Fred Hartlaub is the program chairman.

Dr. J. C. Sentz, St. Paul, Minn., spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin M. Sentz Sr., Littlestown R. 2. Dr. Sentz was enroute to Raleigh, N. C., where he will attend a 10-day convention at the University of North Carolina and then present a report at the University of Minnesota in St. Paul, where he is a member of the faculty. The trip was made by the airplane and Dr. Sentz was met at the airport in Washington, D. C., by his father and brother, Calvin M. Sentz Jr.

Andy Parko, who ended a 17-year playing career in the National League last season, will be around again this year. He's a member of the Milwaukee coaching staff.

Governor Asks Aid For Mass Transportation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pennsylvania's Gov. David L. Lawrence Wednesday urged federal aid for development of mass transportation systems in and around the nation's cities.

Lawrence told the Senate Banking Committee he recommends "in the strongest possible terms" enactment of a bill to provide loans to local governments and authorities for purchase and construction of mass transportation facilities.

"In almost every American city," Lawrence said, "mass transportation is caught in a vicious web of rising costs, declining revenues and increasing competition from public highways."

BUS FIRMS HURT

Lawrence said the problem is not confined to larger metropolitan centers alone. In 1959, he said, private bus companies in Altoona and New Castle, Pa., "simply gave up."

The two cities did not want to operate their lines, but they had no alternative, Lawrence said, adding they formed public authorities and took them over.

On March 31, he said, one of the largest suburban bus lines in western Pennsylvania—the Harmony Short Line—will go out of business.

"If the situation with the bus companies is discouraging, the commuter railroads are having even worse trouble," Lawrence said.

MAY LOSE COMMUTERS

The Pennsylvania Railroad, he said, wants to drop all commuter service at Pittsburgh and "only heroic efforts and tax supported programs have kept Philadelphia's commuter trains running."

What is needed, the governor said, are low-cost, long-term loans to provide new facilities, planning grants to insure wisest possible use of public and private funds joint planning reaching across state borders.

Lawrence said he was pleased that the proposed legislation would place responsibility for the loan program under the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

GROUP SEEKS NEW PREMIER

NEW YORK (AP) — The leader of two major Cuban exile groups pledges that the overthrow of Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro will end firing squads and bring free elections within 18 months.

Jose Miro Cardona, 59, a lawyer who served six weeks as premier at the start of the Castro regime, Wednesday announced formation of a new "revolutionary council," with himself as co-ordinator-general.

The council consists of representatives of the Democratic Revolutionary Front, regarded as middle-of-the-road and favoring free enterprise, and the Revolutionary Movement of the People, considered left-wing but anti-Communist.

OVERTHROW REDS

Cardona told a news conference the aim of the council is to "overthrow the Communist tyranny which enslaves the people of Cuba and to re-establish moral peace and harmony among all Cubans."

He gave no date for any invasion of the island but said: "The arms which we have, and the arms which we will have, will become known when Castro feels their impact." Cardona also called for aid from all exiled Cubans, including other revolutionary groups, "from Canada to Patagonia."

In Havana, Castro termed Cardona's movement "a government of puppets," and said "Cuba must remain alert" against "a group of mercenaries."

BLAME 3 FOR COLLAPSE OF RADAR TOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force Col. William M. Banks has been accused by the Air Force of involuntary manslaughter in the collapse Jan. 15 of a radar tower off the New Jersey coast.

Twenty-eight men died when the 6,000-ton Texas Tower tumbled into the Atlantic during a howling gale.

The Air Force first announced that Banks had been accused of "culpable negligence" and dereliction of duty. Two other officers, Maj. William R. Sheppard and Maj. Reginald L. Starke, also were accused of dereliction of duty.

ALL HAD COMMAND

The three officers exercised varying degrees of command over the radar tower 85 miles southeast of New York City.

The Air Force Tuesday said that the charge of "culpable negligence" could be more specifically phrased as "involuntary manslaughter."

The charges were brought by Maj. Gen. Henry Viciello, commander of the 26th Air Division at Hancock Field, Syracuse, N.Y., based on the findings of a court of inquiry. A more complete investigation of the disaster now is under way.

All three officers have been relieved of their duties to prepare their defense to the charges.

John O'Reilly Of Mount Named To Second Little All-America Cage Squad

By TED MEIER
AP Basketball Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Two 6-7 stringbeans, George Fisher of Wittenberg's NCAA small college champions and Charles Hardnett of Grambling's NAIA champions, top the 1961 college basketball Little All-America announced today by The Associated Press.

Also named to the first team, selected on the basis of votes from nearly 100 sportswriters, were Don Jacobsen of South Dakota State, Tom (Skip) Chappelle of Maine and Bob Mahland of Williams.

Ron Galbreath of Westminster (Pa.), Stan Kernan of McNeese, Zelmo Beatty of Prairie View, Carl Ritter of Southeast Missouri and John O'Reilly of Mt. St. Mary's were picked as a second team.

Rounding out a 13-man squad, Wayne Monson of Northern Michigan, Dick Vories of Georgetown (Ky.), Porter Meriwether of Tennessee State, Marvin Bachmeier of North Dakota State and Carl Short of Newberry were named as a third team.

GET CERTIFICATES

These 15 each will receive a certificate from The Associated Press.

Fisher, a bespectacled senior from Newcastle, Ind., was the key man in Wittenberg's sweep to the NCAA small college title.

Hardnett, a junior from Atlanta, was named the most valuable player in the NAIA tourney as the Grambling Tigers from Louisiana won their national honor.

Jacobsen, a 6-2 senior from Lake Norden, S.D., led South Dakota State to third place in the NCAA small college tourney.

Mahland, a 6-2 junior from Garden City, N.Y., sparked Williams to its best basketball season ever. The Ephraim reached the NCAA national quarterfinals by beating Rochester and Bates.

Chappelle, at 6-0 the smallest of the first team, was the leading scorer in the Yankee Conference. The junior from Old Town, Maine, led Maine to a second place conference finish.

HONORABLE MENTION

Three players from Pennsylvania schools were given honorable mention. They were Tom Pearsall of Albright, Mike Kwak of Kings and Ed McFarlane of Slippery Rock.

Galbreath was a hot contender for the first team. Galbreath, a 6-9 junior from Wampum, Pa., nearly won Westminster in the NAIA final, but the Titans lost by one point, 45-55, to the eventual champion, Grambling, in a torrid semifinal.

BRITISH HEAVY WINS EASILY

LONDON (AP) — Craggy-jawed Henry Cooper, the Cockney heavyweight with the merciless left jab, hatched another scalp on his belt today and prepared to do battle with Floyd Patterson for the championship of the world.

"I think Floyd would be a pretty fair old target for a few of these lefts," grinned the tough Londoner after retaining his British and Empire titles before a hoarse crowd of 12,000 here Tuesday night.

Cooper, 27 years old and the classiest heavyweight to be seen in British rings these days, probably lined himself up for a shot at the world crown by slaughtering Joe Erskine of Wales in five blood-spattered rounds at Wembley indoor stadium.

Unmarked and unfriendly, Cooper savagely jabbed the pudgy Welsh challenger to defeat without ever looking troubled.

At the end of the fifth round of the scheduled 15-round bout, Erskine retired in distress with his left eye mashed into raw flesh and his right eye seeping blood down his face.

"That," said Cooper in his dressing room afterwards, "was just a workout for Patterson."

Bears Clinch 2nd Place In AHL Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Hershey Bears have joined pennant-winning Springfield in the American Hockey League's Calder Cup playoffs but neither has any idea whom they will meet when the post-season competition begins next week.

The reason: Cleveland, Buffalo and Rochester, the three possibilities, are only three points apart in the battle for the remaining two playoff berths, with the regular season ending Sunday.

Hershey clinched a second-place finish Wednesday night with a 2-1 victory over Rochester. This ended Cleveland's chances for a runner-up spot, despite a 10-1 triumph over Quebec. Providence jolted fourth-place Buffalo 2-1.

Cleveland, with two games left, is in third place with 69 points. Buffalo has 68 and Rochester 66, and each has three games to play.

Willie Marshall's goal late in the third period gave Hershey its victory while rookie George Ranieri scored twice in Providence's triumph. Four Barons—Ron Atwell, Fred Glover, Cal Stearns and Bill Dineen—each scored twice against Quebec in Cleveland's runaway.

The Rangers of Fort Cherry had an easy time, whipping Cochran, 7-1, for the western PIAA title, but St. Clair had to go into overtime to beat Luzerne for the other final berth. The score in the eastern final was 89-82.

WIN EASILY

The Rangers and the Saints in the Pitt Field House Friday night for the state Class B championship.

Although Luzerne battled St. Clair down to the wire in the eastern championship game, the Saints had it when the pressure was on in the overtime period.

Substitutes Ron Kalyon and Solon Honicker came off the bench to score six points, giving the Saints a four-point margin. The Lions could not catch up.

ROOKIE LEADS ANGELS WITH .441 AVERAGE

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Gene Leek, remembered as the collegian who precipitated a war of words when the Cleveland Indians signed him off the campus, is hitting .441 for the new Los Angeles Angels.

The San Diego native continued his torrid spring swinging with a three-run homer that beat the San Francisco Giants 5-3 Wednesday and gave the Angels their first pre-season triumph over a team of major league veterans. They previously had won three games against B squads.

Manager Bill Rigney's problem is where to play the versatile Leek, 23, who was holding down third base for the University of Arizona when the Indians grabbed him. That started the verbal battle between college coaches and major league officials that culminated in a rule prohibiting such signings.

Baltimore's streaking Orioles won their fifth in succession after six opening losses by beating Cincinnati 9-4, and the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates brought their record to 10-3 with a 10-1 win over the Chicago White Sox.

In other games, Philadelphia whipped Detroit 7-1 the Chicago Cubs nipped Cleveland 2-1, New York outslug Milwaukee 14-11, St. Louis defeated Kansas City 5-3 the Los Angeles Dodgers edged Minnesota 3-2 and the Twins' B squad walloped Washington 11-3.

Leek's 415-foot circuit shot was the key blow as the Angels scored all their runs off Giants' starter Juan Marichal in the fifth inning. Ken McBride went six innings for Los Angeles, allowing only four hits, and Tex Clevenger finished up with a three-hit performance.

PIRATES WIN EASILY

The Pirates, first team to win 10 games, jumped on White Sox starter Early Wynn for seven runs in the first and coasted behind pitching ace Bob Friend. Friend scattered five hits in a seven-inning outing, walking only one and striking out four.

Robin Roberts, Frank Sullivan and Art Mahaffey stopped the Tigers on six hits for the Phils and received home run support from Pancho Herrera and John Callison.

Mickey Mantle knocked in six runs with two homers, a double and single and Bill Skowron added three with a homer and two singles as the Yanks beat the Braves.

Junior Gilliam's ninth inning pinch single with the bases loaded won it for the Dodgers, who got three innings of no-hit relief from Larry Sherry against the Twins.

WILMINGTON, Del. (AP)—Bob Carpenter, owner of the Philadelphia Phillies, today turned down an offer by Milwaukee to trade pitcher Jim Owens for Braves' shortstop Johnny Logan and first baseman Frank Torre.

Carpenter was informed by a reporter that Braves' General Manager John McHale had said in Bradenton, Fla., that he and Phillies' General Manager John Quinn had agreed tentatively to the deal and were awaiting final approval from Carpenter.

When asked what action he would take, Carpenter, without hesitation, said from his Wilmington, Del., home:

"I would not accept it. I have heard it (the trade) discussed." Carpenter said the Braves know that he would not accept such a deal.

"There must be some mistake," he added.

Should fishing streams, babbling brooks and scenic creeks be taxed apart from the land through which they flow?

Can running water legitimately be segregated, in a property sense, and collected upon to support a local government?

These questions are highly important to thousands of Pennsylvanians who in large measure depend upon the waters of the state for recreation and renewal.

They intrigue most people who pay taxes.

Monroe is the only county in Pennsylvania that taxes streams as separate elements of real estate.

It does so by authority of Pennsylvania's tax-anything law, enacted soon after World War II. This law permits townships, counties and other local political subdivisions to tax anything which the state does not specifically and directly tax itself. It is by invoking that law, for example, that Philadelphia is able to impose a city wage tax.

TAX IN MONROE

Monroe County imposes its tax on the basis of $1,700 per acre of stream. This breaks down to an average of about two dollars a front foot.

Right now 26 private and public streams are assessed for taxes. Involved in this are about 1,600 owners through whose property the streams flow.

Monroe County has been imposing the stream tax for several years, apparently without too much open protest.—until recently.

This year numerous complaints reached the assessors and the county commission, which levies the tax. A private club filed suit, calling the stream tax unjust and unreasonable since, it was stated, other taxes paid by the club covered every proper assessment. Later, the club withdrew the suit, and presumably will pay the tax.

SFC OPPOSES PRACTICE

In Harrisburg, Cyril G. Regan, director of the Real Estate Division of the State Fish Commission, said the commission "is definitely against the practice," adding "we hope it doesn't spread."

Regan said one of the big problems involved in this kind of taxation is that owners whose streams are taxed may try to make up the money by leasing the streams to

READING LOSES TO NANTICOKE IN PLAYOFFS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hickory Twp. and Nanticoke, two teams that were considered playoff longshots, won regional PIAA Class A championships Wednesday night and made their way into the state finals.

Ball control played a big part in each of the regional championship games.

Hickory Twp., getting the best of the rebounding, led practically all the way in its 59-41 win over WPIAL champ Mount Lebanon for the western title.

But for Reading's Red Knights in the eastern contest it was a case of letting the ball, and a seven-point lead, slip through their fingers in the final minutes of the game.

SCORED 11 STRAIGHT

Nanticoke consistently stole the ball from the District 3 champs. The new eastern champions scored 11 straight points in the final two minutes, defeating Reading, 51-47.

Nanticoke, the favorite, had an early lead and held it until Reading went ahead in the third period.

The regional champs meet in Harrisburg Saturday night for the state Class A championship.

The Hickory Hornets looked strong on offense, defense and rebounding as they won their final berth.

Hickory outscored the Blue Devils in the first and second periods, leading 23-18 at halftime. Mount Lebanon hit for 17 to cut the lead to two points at the end of three but the Hornets outscored the Blue Devils 22-6 in the final period.

NATALE HAS 17

Bill James of Nanticoke led the scorers with 20 points and teammate Ken Leggins had 13. Joe Natale tossed in 17 points for Reading.

Bill Lenzi of Hickory Twp. was top scorer in the western game with 19 points, followed by teammate Denny Schuster with 12. Andy Alex was high for Mount Lebanon with 11.

No playoff games are scheduled tonight.

Hickory Twp. and Nanticoke, two teams that were considered playoff longshots, won regional PIAA Class A championships Wednesday night and made their way into the state finals.

Ball control played a big part in each of the regional championship games.

Hickory Twp., getting the best of the rebounding, led practically all the way in its 59-41 win over WPIAL champ Mount Lebanon for the western title.

But for Reading's Red Knights in the eastern contest it was a case of letting the ball, and a seven-point lead, slip through their fingers in the final minutes of the game.

SCORED 11 STRAIGHT

Nanticoke consistently stole the ball from the District 3 champs. The new eastern champions scored 11 straight points in the final two minutes, defeating Reading, 51-47.

Nanticoke, the favorite, had an early lead and held it until Reading went ahead in the third period.

The regional champs meet in Harrisburg Saturday night for the state Class A championship.

The Hickory Hornets looked strong on offense, defense and rebounding as they won their final berth.

Hickory outscored the Blue Devils in the first and second periods, leading 23-18 at halftime. Mount Lebanon hit for 17 to cut the lead to two points at the end of three but the Hornets outscored the Blue Devils 22-6 in the final period.

NATALE HAS 17

Bill James of Nanticoke led the scorers with 20 points and teammate Ken Leggins had 13. Joe Natale tossed in 17 points for Reading.

Bill Lenzi of Hickory Twp. was top scorer in the western game with 19 points, followed by teammate Denny Schuster with 12. Andy Alex was high for Mount Lebanon with 11.

No playoff games are scheduled tonight.

Should fishing streams, babbling brooks and scenic creeks be taxed apart from the land through which they flow?

Can running water legitimately be segregated, in a property sense, and collected upon to support a local government?

These questions are highly important to thousands of Pennsylvanians who in large measure depend upon the waters of the state for recreation and renewal.

They intrigue most people who pay taxes.

Monroe is the only county in Pennsylvania that taxes streams as separate elements of real estate.

It does so by authority of Pennsylvania's tax-anything law, enacted soon after World War II. This law permits townships, counties and other local political subdivisions to tax anything which the state does not specifically and directly tax itself. It is by invoking that law, for example, that Philadelphia is able to impose a city wage tax.

TAX IN MONROE

Monroe County imposes its tax on the basis of $1,700 per acre of stream. This breaks down to an average of about two dollars a front foot.

Right now 26 private and public streams are assessed for taxes. Involved in this are about 1,600 owners through whose property the streams flow.

Monroe County has been imposing the stream tax for several years, apparently without too much open protest.—until recently.

This year numerous complaints reached the assessors and the county commission, which levies the tax. A private club filed suit, calling the stream tax unjust and unreasonable since, it was stated, other taxes paid by the club covered every proper assessment. Later, the club withdrew the suit, and presumably will pay the tax.

Major Political Storm Looms In Britain Over Soviet Spy Ring There

By RAYMOND E. PALMER

LONDON (AP)—A major political storm with international repercussions was building up in Britain today over how a Soviet spy ring could operate five years in this tight little island without being detected.

Conviction Wednesday of a Soviet master spy, an American couple and two British lovers for stealing royal navy secrets still left missing links in the case England's lord chief justice called "a thriller."

Strange Radio Moscow transmissions on a secret wavelength 10 days after the five were caught led security officials to believe that other Soviet spies at large in Britain were being alerted to change their call signs and codes.

ORDERS SECURITY OVERHAUL

Lord Carrington, first lord of the admiralty, ordered a worldwide overhaul of the British navy's security system and announced a board of inquiry would be set up to investigate gaps already disclosed.

British newspapers lashed the security services for "unbelievable slackness." Lord Beaverbrook's Daily Express raised the question of "how much vital information had reached the Russians through the flagrant folly and incompetence of naval intelligence" before the spy ring was cracked.

There were fears here of the impact on joint British-American military and diplomatic planning.

MISTRUST SECURITY

The United States banned sharing atomic secrets in 1950 after Klaus Fuchs was caught giving the Soviets secrets credited with advancing construction of the first Soviet atomic bomb 3 to 10 years. The disappearance behind the iron curtain of British diplomats Guy Burgess and Donald MacLean and of atomic scientist Bruno Pontecorvo added to American mistrust of British security.

The British navy said the secrets passed to the Soviets by the five spies convicted Wednesday had "marked value," including details of the atomic submarine Dreadnought, built with the help of U.S. blueprints. But Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was understood to have written President Kennedy that no U.S. naval or atomic secrets were compromised by the spy ring.

Chief Justice Sir Hubert Lister

Parker underscored the seriousness of the spying, however, by imposing sentences of from 15 to 25 years when the normal maximum is 7.

SEE CLOSER CHECKS

The case was expected to bring closer cooperation between the Western allies in keeping tabs on suspicious persons.

Gordon Arnold Lonsdale, 37, who got 25 years as the "directing force" of the ring, claimed to be a Canadian and represented himself sometimes as an American but Scotland Yard said he actually was a Soviet citizen.

The American couple — Morris Cohen, 50, alias Kroger, and his wife Helen, 47, who were given 20 years, have associated with Communists since the Spanish Civil War.

HAD FORGED PASSPORTS

Scotland Yard indicated in court they were connected with the cases of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg, Americans electrocuted in 1950 for stealing U.S. atomic secrets for Moscow, and Col. Rudolf Abel, Soviet master spy arrested in 1957 and now serving 30 years in a U.S. prison.

Yet for nearly 10 years the Cohens-Krogers traveled around the world — to Canada, Tokyo, Singapore, Vienna, London, New Zealand and possibly back and forth through the iron curtain — without being suspect.

They showed up in England in 1964 with New Zealand passports. Forged Canadian passports were also found in their home near a U.S. air base.

OTHER PROBES BEGUN

New Zealand Prime Minister Keith Holyoake has ordered an investigation of how they obtained New Zealand passports. Canada is investigating how the forged Canadian passports carried the actual dates and numbers of other passports issued to two Canadians who have been cleared of any connection with the case.

The two Britons who stole the naval secrets from the research station where they worked and gave them to Lonsdale—Harry F. Houghton, 55, and his mistress, Ethel Gee, 46—each got 15 year sentences. Houghton claimed he was forced into spying by threats, and Miss Gee testified she was misled and got involved through her love for Houghton. The judge said money was her aim.

House Passes Tourist Bill And Recesses For Easter

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's legislators were mired on an 11-day Easter recess today with a host of controversial issues put off until their return.

These include such things as billboard control, lobbyist control, legalized radar, elimination of the commission paid merchants for collecting the sales tax, and increase in the legislators' pay and pensions.

In addition, the overdue report from Gov. Lawrence's Committee on Education is expected to be waiting for them when they return. And reapportionment of the state's congressional and legislative districts is still in the future.

The last major action Wednesday before the House got away for the vacation (the senators started Tuesday) was approval of the administration's tourist promotion bill.

ONE OPPOSED

The vote was 185-1 with Republican Guy A. Kistler of Cumberland County the lone dissenter. He declined to explain his vote to House newsmen.

The proposal now moves to the Senate for further action. Lawrence said the bill "will aid immeasurably in strengthening the statewide campaign to attract more and more visitors."

In a statement issued shortly after the House action Lawrence said it was "gratifying evidence that the merits of the bill have been recognized."

He expressed the hope that the Senate will give it early and favorable consideration.

The tourist industry brought more than $1.3 billion into the state's economy last year, the statement added.

PASSED 42 BILLS

The House passed 42 bills in the six-hour session.

The highlights included: County Health—An administration bill proposing to repeal a 1959 law permitting counties with their own health departments to call a referendum on the question of continuing these departments.

The administration claimed the continual threat of being dissolved by popular vote hamstringing the operations of these county health units. Opponents argued, successfully, that the right of the people to decide whether to continue such an operation was basic and should not be denied.

Indications were that the administration would abandon attempts to repeal the referendum provision in favor of tighter restrictions on such referenda.

RETREAT FROM PROPOSAL

State Parks—The administration also had to retreat from its proposal to give the state secretary of forests and waters authority to lease state parks for mining of valuable minerals.

Opponents claimed the authority was so broad it might turn state parks into big mines and quarries. Administration supporters indicated agreement that the authority be restricted to oil and gas operations.

Most of the 42 bills passed were noncontroversial and of minor importance.

The tourist promotion bill sets up a state-local cooperative program for presenting the merits of Pennsylvania as a place to visit.

It authorizes the state to spend up to 10 cents per capita or $3 per rentable room in any county with an approved promotion program. The local agency would have to match the state contribution.

39 COUNTIES INVOLVED

Harold A. Swenson, director of the state's vacation and travel bureau, estimated that about 39 counties now have agencies that would be eligible to participate.

Five counties probably could qualify for over $10,000 each, he said. These he identified as Allegheny, Bucks, Lancaster, Monroe and Philadelphia.

The bill would limit the amount contributed by the state in any one county to $40,000.

Swenson listed six other counties which by his rough estimates probably would gain between $6,000 and $15,000: Berks, Dauphin, Erie, Lebanon, Westmoreland and York.

ADAMS INCLUDED

The remaining counties, which he estimated could qualify for between $1,000 and $5,000 were: Adams, Bedford, Bradford, Cambria, Cameron, Carbon, Centre, Clarion, Crawford, Cumberland, Elk, Fayette, Franklin, Greene, Huntingdon, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Lycoming, McKean, Northumberland, Pike, Potter, Somerset, Sullivan, Tioga, Warren, Wayne and Wyoming.

Every agency qualifying under the act would be guaranteed at least $1,000. No more than one tourist agency in any one county would be eligible. Two or more counties could cooperate as one agency.

The counties themselves are to designate the participating agency, with the concurrence of the cities, boroughs, towns and townships affected.

LONDON (AP)—President Kwame Nkrumah called on all nations Wednesday to impose total economic and political sanctions on South Africa until the South African government abandons its apartheid racial policy.

NEED SPEAKER TO SUPPORT A DEATH PENALTY

By JACK LYNCH

HARRISBURG (AP)—A member of a legislative committee studying capital punishment is concerned about a lack of testimony in favor of retention of the death penalty.

"We have not had a balanced response to our invitation for all interested parties to appear," said Sen. Harry E. Seyler, D-York. Seyler, who favors abolition of the death penalty, made the comment Wednesday during a public hearing on the issue.

Seven witnesses were on hand for the start of the second round of hearings. All of them opposed capital punishment and urged repeal of the death penalty in Pennsylvania.

Only two witnesses testified for retention of the penalty at the first round of hearings two weeks ago in Philadelphia.

However, a statement opposing abolition of the penalty by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover was read into the record Wednesday.

Hoover declined an invitation to appear personally, writing to the committee that it is his policy not to become involved in legislative matters.

BILLS IN BOTH HOUSES

The committee was appointed to determine the feasibility of eliminating the death penalty in Pennsylvania. Several bills proposing abolition are in both houses.

Dr. Negley K. Teeter, professor of sociology at Temple University, argued that Hoover does not support his belief with facts.

Representatives of the Pennsylvania Council of Churches, the Philadelphia Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church and two Quaker groups argued against capital punishment on religious and moral grounds.

23rd Amendment May Go Into Effect In Ten Days

WASHINGTON (AP)—The 23rd Amendment, granting the presidential vote to citizens of the District of Columbia, may become part of the Constitution within a week or 10 days.

This was the prediction today of a citizens' committee whose promotion work so far has helped to get 35 state ratifications.

Approval by only three more states is needed to get the necessary three-fourths of the states for the amendment which Congress submitted last June 16.

COULD COME SOON

Citizens' committee officials said the last three approvals could come within 10 days from among Ohio, Kansas, New Hampshire, and Rhode Island.

In addition to these four crucial states, there are two others—North Carolina and Texas—where ratification has a fair chance.

Ratification by the 38th state would enfranchise upward of 400,000 new voters. The District, incorporated in 1802 as the national capital, has a population of 763,956. An estimated 53.9 per cent are Negro.

3 ELECTORAL VOTES

The District is not a state and the 23rd Amendment would not make it one. However, it would get three electoral votes, the minimum number allowed the least populous states of Alaska, Delaware, Hawaii, Nevada, Vermont and Wyoming.

The District will have no representation in Congress. Nor will the new amendment change its local form of government. The city is administered by three commissioners appointed by the President. Its appropriations and laws are made by Congress.

Family Food Facts

THOMAS E. PIPER
Area Marketing Agent

What does convenience cost you as a consumer? In recent years the use of convenience foods with "built-in" maid service has been cited as the reason for much of the increase in food marketing costs. As a result, farmers are receiving a declining percentage of the food dollar.

These added marketing services have contributed to higher marketing costs, reports Tom Piper, Penn State extension marketing agent. However, this may not be as great a factor as once believed.

Total sales of convenience foods are increasing. In 1958 they comprised 5 1/2 per cent of total grocery sales. Sales of precooked foods made up less than one per cent of all food sales.

63 SERVICED FOODS

In 1958 the United States Department of Agriculture made a study of 63 serviced foods and their unserved counterparts; that is, fresh peas versus frozen or cut up chicken compared to whole chickens. This study showed that for each $100 spent, the serviced foods cost only 61 cents more than the unserved ones. The difference was less than one per cent.

Increased costs due to more extensive processing and packaging may be partially offset by reduction of waste and spoilage. Orange juice made from frozen concentrate often costs about half as much as the same amount squeezed from fresh oranges at home.

To obtain good buys in food, economy-minded shoppers should consider the following factors: cost per serving, convenience and time saved, family preference and nutritional contributions. Food costs can be controlled if you learn how to compare prices of foods in different forms—fresh, frozen, canned or a combination of these. Watch for food sales and watch for foods in season when supplies are most plentiful. A good buy may be the one that gives the most satisfaction per dollar spent.

In relation to today's income, food prices are at the lowest point in history. The American factory worker today can buy the standard monthly "market basket" of family foods with earnings from 38 hours of work. In 1947 it required 61 hours. This is the real way to determine if food is a bargain.

Cherry Blossom Queen Is Crowned

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvania's princess for Washington's annual Cherry Blossom Festival will be officially crowned Saturday.

She is blonde Cynthia L. Wehrle of Hollidaysburg, Pa., a graduate student in foreign affairs at Georgetown University.

The ceremony will take place at a dance and reception to be staged by the Pennsylvania State Society of Washington at the Washington Knights of Columbus Club.

Rep. James E. Van Zandt, R-Pa., who represents her district in Congress, will place the tiara on Miss Wehrle's head.

She will represent the Keystone State throughout the five-day festival beginning April 4.

SUMMER TV TO BE NEARLY ALL WINTER RERUNS

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If you wonder what television's summer viewing will be like the answer is one word: reruns.

Out of the 100-odd prime-time TV programs on the three major networks, more than 80 will mark time during the hot weather months with repeats of winter shows. Even the Ed Sullivan Show which used to boast about its year-round new show will serve up eight reruns.

NBC's schedule still contains some holes, including Perry Como's replacement.

Most of NBC's new shows will come on Friday nights—"Whispering Smith," an action series with Audie Murphy, a return of "The Lawless Years," police-action series, and "Preview Playhouse," a collection of pilot films that failed to sell.

CBS also has some empty spots to fill, but will give us a Wayne and Shuster situation comedy, "Holiday Lodge" during Jack Benny's vacation; "Brenner," a police-action series which had a brief run once before.

The network will also repeat Playhouse 90 shows of other years on Tuesday nights during warm weather.

Just about the only new material scheduled for ABC is old, old movies on its "Silets Please" series, which bows in this week.

Recommended tonight: "Silets Please," ABC, 10:30-11 Eastern Standard Time. Return of condensed version of silent movie classics, starting with Douglas Fairbanks Sr. in "The Black Pirate."

Suspend 2 In Navy Funds Shortage

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (AP)—

The Navy says the civilian manager of the officers' mess at the Willow Grove Naval Air Station and a bookkeeper have been suspended pending completion of an audit of the mess books.

The Navy reported Wednesday that there was an apparent shortage of some $18,000.

A spokesman said the Navy has been auditing the books since March 2, when it was learned some bills had not been paid. The FBI also was investigating the case.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—One family on William Koenig's mail route has a son in England and a daughter in Paris.

When a letter arrives from England, Koenig signals the family with one toot on his auto horn. He toots twice if the letter is from Paris.

The other day Koenig had a letter postmarked India. Puzzled, he drove off with not toot at all.

SEES GENERAL RISE IN STOCK MARKET PRICES

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Here we go again. That is, we will if you believe all the talk about another bull market being born, or confirmed, or definitely gathering strength in Wall Street.

Stock prices in general have been rising since early fall. They've had periods of stagnation, sometimes of decline after bad news, but the general trend has been upward.

Much of the public has been confused by the wide variety of explanations and expert counseling. Enough traders have been optimistic, however, to keep prices rising—if only on hopes of better times, or fears of more inflation.

PUBLIC IS FASCINATED

And much of the public has been fascinated. Heavy trading shows that the public has been in the market. Usually it has been giving special favorites a ride in turn. And always there's been talk, talk, talk about market prospects, about chances for a quick killing.

Now the long, slow rising trend of prices has been confirmed to the satisfaction of the followers of the Dow theory. This is because the Dow Jones index of railroad share prices has broken through a level where previously it had been turned back. The industrial index already had pierced its former resistance level. According to the theorists, from now on the course should be upward—but definitely. They officially dub it a bull market.

The chartists and their followers may be fewer in recent years than in their heyday before the 1929 stock market crash. But by acting in concert they often influence the market, if only temporarily.

RAILS SPURTED
And some observers in Wall Street think this is what has been happening this week. According to this view, followers of the Dow theory climbed aboard the bandwagon Tuesday as the rail index suddenly spurted toward the resistance point after lagging most of March.

Many who don't follow the Dow theory still respect its influence and climbed aboard too for the ride. All this helped send the rails higher on a day when the industrials were faltering.

Critics of the charts, and of the various indexes themselves, point out that they are only general at best. Individual stocks don't necessarily go the same way. Often stocks of whole industries buck the trend.

You may own the lucky leaders. But you may find that the stocks you own just don't seem to have heard about the rising indexes, or about a bull market either, for that matter.

LARGE SELLING VOLUME

This could account for much of the large volume of selling in recent weeks among the odd lot holders—those buying or selling fewer stocks than the 100 shares that constitute a round lot. These odd-lot sellers could be getting out of old holdings that disappoint them by holding aloof from the bull market. They could be lured by the currently more glamorous stocks, or they may be still shopping around.

Public enthusiasm can feed the newly acclaimed bull market. Any marked shift in public confidence in the future of the economy or in the ability of stocks in general to keep on rising indefinitely could change the scene quickly.

The cliché attributed to J. P. Morgan that the only sure thing is that stock prices will fluctuate is

CIVIL WAR UNIT BRUSHES ASIDE RACIAL ISSUE

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil War Centennial Commission has brushed aside a suggestion by President Kennedy it should act to prevent racial discrimination at its annual assembly in Charleston, S.C.

The state commissions from New Jersey and several other states have said they will boycott the April 11-12 sessions unless assured Negro member may attend all functions.

The President sent a letter to the national commission last week after complaints arose that a Negro member of the New Jersey commission was denied a room in the hotel headquarters for the National assembly.

Kennedy said that the commission, as a body created by Congress, had an obligation to avoid racial discrimination in its activities.

After a long, closed meeting Tuesday, the commission's executive committee said it had no authority to require Charleston hotels to provide rooms for Negroes attending the assembly.

Rep. William M. Tucker, D-Va., chairman of the executive committee, said the commission feels "that the basic law by which it was created gives it no legislative or executive power in matters concerning the actions of local, civil, patriotic or historical groups in arranging centennial observances."

He said the April assembly in Charleston would go on as scheduled.

still popular. It's a cliché because it is often repeated. But that could be because it's true.

Ask $23.1 Million For Penn State

HARRISBURG (AP)—The House has been asked to appropriate $23.1 million for the Pennsylvania State University.

Reps. Eugene M. Fulmer, R-Centre, and Jeanette F. Reibman, D-Northampton, sponsored the request. A similar proposal was introduced in the Senate Tuesday.

The amount is $4.6 million above the amount requested by Gov. Lawrence in his 1961-62 budget.

Mrs. Reibman is chairman of the House Education Committee.

OFFER BILL TO BUY LAND AT FT. NECESSITY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sens. Hugh Scott, R-Pa., and Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., today proposed a bill to authorize the purchase of additional lands for the Fort Necessity National Battlefield Park, near Uniontown, Pa.

The scene marks the opening engagement in the French and Indian War, fought by England and France for control of the North American continent. The battle occurred July 3, 1754, and marked the first major episode in the military career of George Washington.

ISSUE STATEMENT

Scott and Clark said in a statement:

"The state of Pennsylvania has already enacted legislation to convey about 289 acres of park lands adjoining the fort and about 23 acres of the nearby Braddock Monument—together valued at about $125,000—to the federal government for a consideration of one dollar."

"Most of the remaining 160 acres proposed for acquisition constitute a part of the original land patent to General Washington and now are owned by various private parties."

HAD SECRET PAPERS; GETS EIGHT YEARS

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—Arthur Rogers Roddey, former Pentagon mathematician, was sentenced today to serve eight years in prison for unauthorized possession of a secret defense document.

Roddey, 38, pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court Feb. 17 to that one charge in a 12-count indictment growing out of the discovery of numerous Pentagon papers in his home at Falls Church, Va.

He had worked for a private contractor in defense headquarters until last August.

Charges which the government did not press alleged theft of the papers and making of false statements.

Early in the case the FBI said it was not an espionage matter, and there never was any suggestion that Roddey was working for a foreign power.

Judge Albert V. Bryan delayed sentencing until he could study a probation report. The charge carried a maximum penalty of 10 years and a fine of $10,000. The judge said today the guilty plea was the only thing that persuaded him not to assess the top penalty.

Roddey testified he was greatly concerned over the "missile gap." He said he took the papers to prepare a report he said would show that scientific studies at the Pentagon were "watered down" to avoid bigger defense spending or to favor one military service over another.

MARGATE, England (AP)—Policeman Donald Wright pressed the doorbell at a Margate bungalow Tuesday and the eight-room house blew up.

The body of the owner, Doris Mull, 65, was found in the wreckage.

Police say the woman was lying dead in the gas-filled kitchen and that a spark from the electrically operated bell ignited the gas. Wright was not hurt.

WIDOW FIGHTS FOR MILLIONS

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The State Supreme Court has taken under advisement an appeal from the widow of a Pittsburgh department store executive to reverse a lower court ruling rejecting her claim to half of her husband's $10 million estate.

Counsel for Mrs. Grace Stoops Kaufmann Wednesday asked the Court to grant her a new trial and to consider a change of venue. The suit centers on an agreement signed by Mrs. Kaufmann before she married Edgar J. Kaufmann Sept. 3, 1954. The executors and trustees of the estate claim she waived all legal rights to a widow's share of one-half. Kaufmann died seven months after the marriage. He bequeathed Mrs. Kaufmann about $652,000 worth of real estate and personal property, some $80,000 in stock and $4,500 annual income from a trust fund.

4,000 TROOPS AVAILABLE FOR LAOTIAN HELP

By FRED B. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—South-east Asia Treaty Organization nations could throw about 4,000 battle-ready troops into Laos within a short time after any decision to help the royal Laotian army. This conclusion was drawn from a check of military sources here today as concern deepened over the apparently deteriorating situation in the mountainous kingdom where pro-Communist rebels are advancing toward the capital of Vientiane.

Against the Pathet Lao rebels—estimated to number between 8,000 and 10,000—a force of 4,000 disciplined, well armed men could be decisive if used to bolster the 29,000-man royal Laotian army.

MIGHTY PROVOKE REDS

However, the danger some U.S. officials see is that such intervention might evoke a similar response from the Communist side and thus set off a Korea-type war. If such a war should erupt, the United States would be at a disadvantage because its forces are thinly spread and it is short on airlift and sealt.

U.S. officials said Wednesday there was no serious thought, as of then, of direct American military intervention.

Pentagon spokesmen said U.S. forces had not been placed on any special readiness basis.

Not all U.S. officials were pessimistic—some said they still believe the royal Laotian army, whose will and readiness to fight has been brought into question, can hold the major cities even if the pro-Red Pathet Lao take more of the countryside.

JOINT MOVEMENT

There was some speculation that the eight-nation SEATO alliance, or some of its members, might decide on a joint move in Laos unless the situation were stabilized.

Besides the United States, SEATO members are Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, the Philippines and Pakistan. Meeting in Bangkok, SEATO military advisers declared Wednesday there is a need for continued military planning "to resist and repel Communist aggression" in the light of developments in Laos.

While Laos is not a member of SEATO, the embattled jungle kingdom comes under its protection.

FLOW OF GOLD FROM U. S. STOPS

WASHINGTON (AP)—The flow of gold from the United States "for some weeks now has stopped entirely," according to the Commerce Department.

In an encouraging report on the nation's balance of payments, the department's Office of Business Economics said Tuesday that the U.S. payments positions has shown "very substantial improvement" from the deficits which caused a serious drain on gold stocks for more than two years.

The department added that the gold price in the London market has returned to the normal range and speculation in gold has been dampened.

The U.S. gold outflow was halted in the last week of February for the first time since last July.

Will Launch Mock Man-Into-Space

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The National Aeronautics and Space Administration has decided to launch a Redstone missile carrying a mock man-in-space capsule before attempting a manned suborbital flight.

The launching, expected within a few days, will check several corrections made in the Redstone as a result of performance flaws that developed when Ham the space chimp was fired on a short trip in January.

Principal malfunction on the chimp shot was a faulty thrust regulator on the Redstone engine. This caused the capsule to fly higher and farther than planned and complicated recovery operations.

Officials said the added shot—if successful—would delay the manned effort only about two weeks.

BUD ABBOTT MAKES DEBUT IN NEW ROLE

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—When Bud Abbott stepped before the camera this week, he marked several milestones.

It was the first time he had done a single. It was the first time he played a dramatic role.

It also was the first time he returned to Universal Studios since the days he and the late Lou Costello lorded it as the comedy kings of movies.

Bud was back at Universal (now Revue) to play a hard-bitten agent of a night club comic (Lee Marvin) in "The Joke's On Me," which will appear on G.E. Theater April 16. I watched as director Ida Lupino put the actors through their paces.

"I'M NOT NERVOUS"

"I'm not nervous," Abbott said later. "It does seem a little strange not working with the little guy. But what the heck—acting is acting, whether you're doing 'Who's on First?' or a dramatic scene. I think I can handle it."

Bud's confidence may also stem from the conquest of another hurdle. This month he made his return to the comedy business, working with a new partner, Candy Candido. They opened to excellent returns at the Holiday House in Pittsburgh.

"That was the biggest challenge of all—to see, after 24 years of working with Lou, if I could make another man funny," said Bud.

"A REAL THRILL"

"I found out I could. I put Candy through a lot of our old routines—yes, even 'Who's on First?' You know something? It was just as funny as before. Candy did some of his own routines, too; he wasn't just imitating Lou.

"Believe me, it was a real thrill to read those headlines: 'New comedy team is born.'"

Bud's manager is now talking about dates for the team in Philadelphia and Boston, and there's mention of a TV series. For the first time since his tax troubles laid him low, Bud is excited about the future.

Every county in the state, every state in the Union, and 44 foreign countries are represented in the Pennsylvania State University's current student body.

DETECTIVE SHOTS SELF NEW YORK (AP)—Authorities said Wednesday there apparently is no connection between a detec-

tive's suicide attempt and his assignment—investigation of the college basketball scandal. Detective Bill Leahy, 41, wounded himself critically Tuesday outside the Criminal Courts Building in downtown Manhattan. He had shot himself in the chest with his own revolver. Asst. Chief Inspector Robert

Gallati said a note in Leahy's hand indicated suicide. Friends said Leahy had been upset over the recent death of his father.

GRANDMOTHER SECOND VICTIM OF FLASH FIRE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A flash fire which struck a commercial building claimed its second victim today, the grandmother of a five-year-old girl who also was killed in the blaze.

Mrs. Clara Seiler, 80, died in Hahnemann Hospital some 12 hours after her granddaughter, Beatrice Weisz, was killed in the fire Wednesday.

Six other persons were injured including the child's mother, Mrs. Mary Weisz, 37. Mrs. Weisz is in Jefferson Hospital in critical condition.

The little girl was a daughter of Kurt Weisz, owner of a sportswear manufacturing firm on the second floor of the four-story building.

FLAME BLOCKS STAIRS

Flames broke out on the first floor, occupied by the Keystone Display Co., and blocked the stairway.

Weisz wife, daughter and mother-in-law were trapped in his factory. They apparently had stopped at the factory after an afternoon of shopping to accompany him home.

Weisz crept through a window and led the others to a three-foot square fire escape landing. As he crouched down to lower the iron bottom section to the sidewalk a large window on the first floor shattered with a roar. Flames shot up, enveloping the mother and her daughter. Weisz was untouched because he was crouching.

He was hysterical, crying: "Oh, my God. My whole family."

Fire Chief George Hink said the fire spread rapidly as it fed on supplies of decorating fabrics and materials.

The cause was not immediately known.

STARTERS FOR NEW SENATORS ARE IN DOUBT

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
POMPANO BEACH, Fla. (AP)—The management of the new Washington Senators are no fools. Aware that enemy batters are lurking in wait for their puerile pitchers, they pushed out the fences in Griffith Stadium.

The additional footage, 38 in left field, 35 in left center and 12 in dead center, is bound to be of some help. It doesn't figure to do much harm to the Washington hitters who, at first glance, are not likely to knock down any fences.

Mickey Vernon, the freshman manager, isn't overly worried about the size of the park. He is more concerned with finding a presentable lineup for opening day. Other than his opening battery of pitcher Dick Donovan and catcher Pete Daley, and perhaps his left fielder, Gene Woodling, Vernon has no idea who will be on the field when President Kennedy throws out the first ball to open the 1961 American League season in the nation's capital April 10.

"FEELING MY WAY"
"I'm still kind of feeling my way," said the former star first baseman of the old Senators. "The boys are all willing workers and enthused about the new setup. It still feels a little strange to have to give orders to fellow I've played with for years."

Vernon has a fairly good idea what veterans like Woodling, Daley, Dale Long, Billy Klaus, Tom Sturdivant and Dave Sisler can do, so he is keeping a closer eye on the flock of kids in camp. Most impressive so far have been Bud Zippel, a first baseman; Harry Bright, a third baseman; Joe Hicks, an outfielder; and Joe McClain, a right-handed pitcher. The infield currently shapes up as Long at first base, Bob Johnson or Johnny Scaife at second, Coot Veal at shortstop and Bright at third. Zippel, the hitting surprise of the camp, has an outside chance to win the regular first base berth.

HURTING FOR PATCHING
Vernon plans to keep five of his six outfielders. He leans toward center fielder Willie Tasby and right fielder Marty Keogh as

Rt. 15 Section In Md. To Be Built

The State Roads Commission is asking for bids on the construction of a section of relocated U. S. Route 15 near Lewistown and it is hoped that work can begin on the new stretch of highway this summer.

The new piece of road which will ultimately become the south-bound lane of the dualized road will be constructed to the west of Lewistown. It will have a paved portion 24 feet wide and 10 foot stabilized shoulders on either side.

Thomas G. Mohler, district engineer for the SRC, said that the new strip of highway will connect with the present Route 15 just north of the Mountandale road and bear to the west of Lewistown and then connect with the old road again just north of Mount Prospect Church at the northern edge of Lewistown.

Included in the project will be a three-span bridge over Fishing Creek.

Trucks Crash On Icy Bridge; 1 Killed

READING, Pa. (AP)—Two tractor-trailers crashed on an ice-glazed bridge early today killing one of the drivers and injuring three other men.

Clearance Smith, 34, of Nitro, W. Va., riding alone in his rig, was killed in the accident, which occurred on Route 22 a mile east of Krumville and 12 miles north of Reading.

The injured are Donnie Lee Bell, 46, John Renn, Jr., 41; both of Durham, N. C., and Woodrow Atkins, 34, of Charleston, W. Va. They are in Reading Hospital.

Police said Bell's tractor-trailer skidded into another lane and hit Smith's truck.

Woodling's running mates. However, Hicks, 303 at San Diego last year; and Jim King, 287 at Toronto, are very much in the running. Charley Hinton, who socked 20 homers and batted .369 at Stockton, may be sent down for more seasoning.

Vernon is set behind the plate with Daley, Gene Green and Dutch Dotterer.

"We're hurting for pitching," admitted Vernon. "After Donovan, it's impossible for me to name another starter."

UPPER ADAMS'

to which they were not entitled." The use of more thorough accounting practices in this matter was urged.

Other notations by the auditors "found little evidence of receipt of merchandise or of verification of mathematical accuracy and prices on the invoices." It was recommended that details of bills, including their amounts, and a record of board action be kept. Board action where majority votes are required on roll calls is to be included in board records, the state men pointed out.

MINUTES INCOMPLETE

In the report on the Arendtsville school district, the auditors found incomplete minutes on such matters as majority votes on temporary loans. The auditors found there, also, that no books of account were maintained by the school district in sufficient detail to allow reconciliation to bank balances. The depository also failed to render monthly accounts.

In Bendersville, it was found the treasurer did not make monthly reports and that some divisions of the budget were expended without the transfer of funds to cover the situation. Failure of the depository to render monthly statements also was noted.

In Biglerville school district records the auditors found no cancelled checks or bank statements were available for audit of the 1957-58 school year as those records had been destroyed. It was pointed out that state law requires such records be preserved for at least six years. The failure of the bank to render monthly statements also was noted here.

OK FOR TYRONE

The report for Butler Twp. simply noted that neither the treasurer nor the depository had been rendering monthly statements.

The Menallen report shows that the depository did not render monthly statements and indicated that a check of the board's minutes showed the need for more complete information on the vote of the board on all transactions notations on treasurer's monthly reports and notation in the minutes that the law was complied with in regard to giving public notice of the proposed budget.

No flaws were found in Tyrone Twp. procedures. Copies of the audit have been sent to the governor, the state department of public instruction and to the local boards from the office of Auditor General Charles C. Smith.

TEXAS COUPLE UNCONSCIOUS IN SAME ROOM

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP)—Critically injured in separate automobile accidents, Carl Tune, 46, and his wife, 44, for weeks have been unconscious in the same room of a Temple hospital.

Two daughters of the popular couple hover nearby constantly, aware that their parents' physician, Dr. James Pettigrew, expects no immediate improvement in their condition.

The girls, Janet, 18, and Kay, 20, have dropped out of college to be with their parents. Neither Tune nor his wife have shown improvement since they lapsed into unconsciousness. The community has rallied to their aid.

WIFE HURT TOO

Tune was injured last Dec. 8 when he was struck by an automobile as he walked to work. Mrs. Tune, a registered nurse at the hospital, cared for him in off hours. He suffered a head injury and multiple fractures.

Mrs. Tune and Janet were en route to Denton, Tex., March 5 when the car Janet was driving overturned. Mrs. Tune suffered a critical head injury.

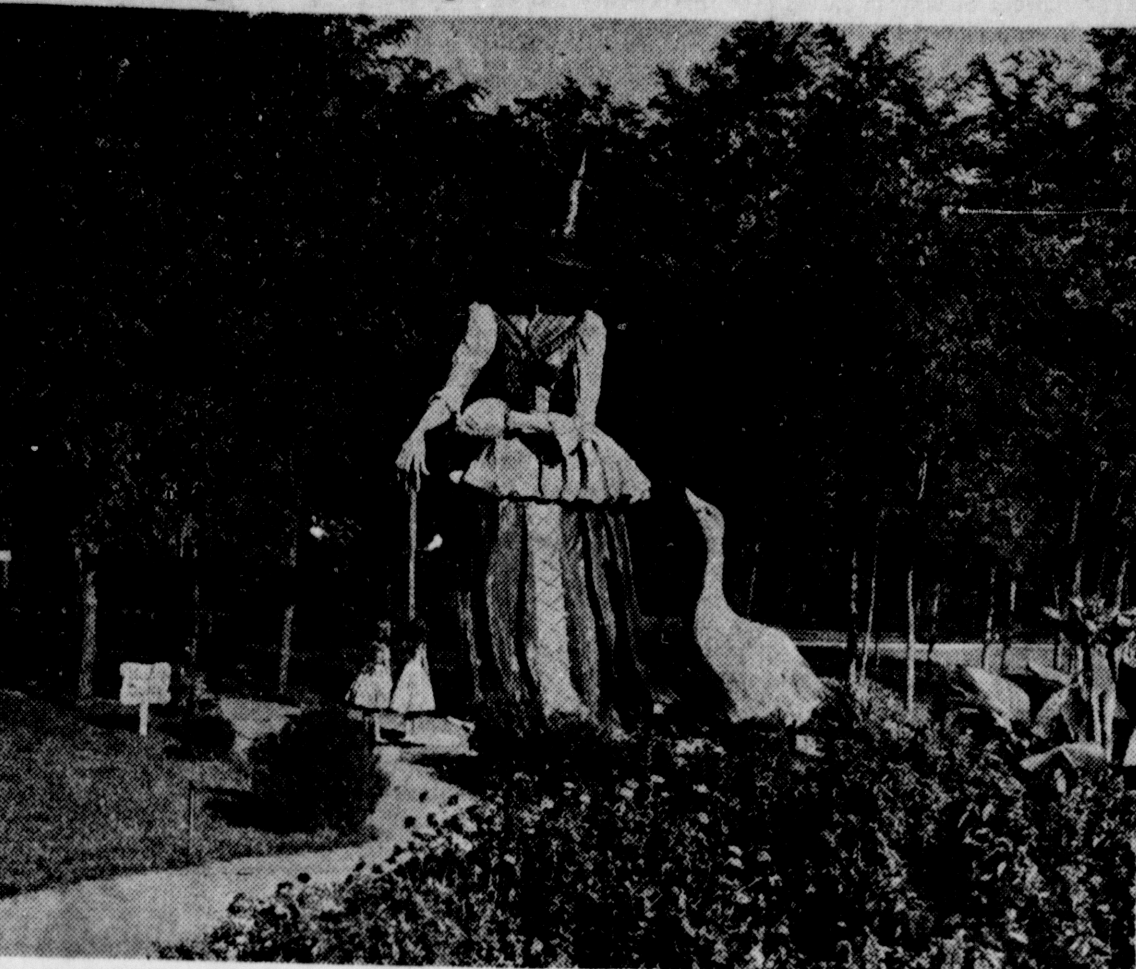

Kay left her studies at North Texas State in Denton. Janet dropped out of Temple Junior College. Both wanted to be near their parents and they were needed to care for their brother, Carl, Jr., 13, who continued in school here.

FUND DRIVE STARTED

The Tunes are well known in central Texas for their work with young people and the ill. He was a member of the Temple Quarterback Club, officiated at Golden Gloves bouts, and helped with the Little League program in the area. He worked at the American Desk Co. and was known as an avid sports fan.

The Communications Workers of America, a union with which the family had no connections, started a fund drive for the children, without income since their parents were hospitalized.

Fantasyland Opens On Palm Sunday

Workmen this week were completing additions to Fantasyland, Gettysburg's storyland park, in preparation for the scheduled opening Palm Sunday.

The winter's snows prevented them from beginning work until late February but an oversized staff has planted more than 10,000 Holland Hybrid tulip, hyacinth and daffodil bulbs under direction of Albert Bos of Holland.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dick, owners of Fantasyland believe the blooms will create a sea of color throughout the wooded area by the stream, Santa's Village, Fairy Lake and the Lollypop tree. Girls in authentic Dutch costumes will be present to show the public the blooms, explain their names and even provide information on where they may be obtained if individuals care to duplicate the gardens around their own homes.

While some workmen were engaged in the new plantings others are constructing an addition to the gift shop, storage and office space. A new wide flagstone veranda is being placed overlooking the main garden and Mother Goose to permit adults to rest while youngsters explore the wonders of the Fantasyland.

A 36-foot carousel has been added with white horses decorated in gold and jewels. The 1863 train—the Cannonball Express—is being refurbished and will make its first run of the season on Palm Sunday.

New cutouts have been added to the Old Lady in the Shoe, Mary and her Little Lamb, and Jack and Jill at the Wishing Well.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick have announced they plan to make Fantasyland known not only as an amusement park, but as a "restful haven of beauty. A spot to get away from the tensions of life while spending a few hours among the friendly trees."

Bonn, Germany (AP) — The United States hopes the major Western industrial nations will spend about $7.5 billion dollars a year to aid underdeveloped nations, George W. Ball, U.S. under-secretary of state for economic affairs, said Wednesday.

Ball, who just concluded three days of talks with the West German government, said this sum represents about one per cent of the gross national product of each of the 10 member nations of the Development Assistance Group (DAG).

Ball told a news conference the United States would propose such a program at the DAG meeting in London next week. The gross national product is the total value of a nation's production and services performed.

Ball said one per cent was suggested as a guide for the countries preparing to aid underdeveloped countries. The percentage figure was discussed at talks here although no actual money figures were mentioned, he said.

His disclosure came after the New York Times printed a similar report in a dispatch from Paris. The DAG consists of the United States, Canada, Britain, France, Italy, Portugal, West Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands and Japan.

DAG eventually will become the development aid committee of the newly created Organization of Economic Cooperation and Development.

The main purpose of DAG, Ball explained, is to gather information on how member nations now are helping less fortunate lands. The group is a forum where common aid problems can be discussed, he said.

DON'T DELAY ADOPTION SAYS AP REPORTER

NEW YORK (AP)—"Should we try to adopt a baby? If we do, how do we know it will work out all right? What if it should turn out to be a mistake?"

Millions of childless American couples ask themselves those questions.

Many have asked my wife, Frances, and me these same questions since we adopted a 5-week-old daughter, Tracy Ann, nearly eight years ago.

Our answer invariably is: "Don't worry about it being a mistake. If you have an urge to adopt a child, the biggest mistake you can make is to delay or dawdle. The sooner you set about making an adoption, the more years you'll have to enjoy the child."

People who have never adopted a child have some weird ideas on this subject.

For example, they often mistakenly praise you by saying, "That's a wonderful thing you're doing—to take a strange infant into your home and treat it as your own."

Actually, of course, it's just the other way around. It is the child that is doing you a favor by widening and deepening your life with a new sense of fulfillment.

Others ask dubiously, "Do you ever really quite get to think of an adopted child as your own flesh and blood?"

The answer to this is, "Yes, but it does take time." In our own case it took a full 24 hours. Since then we have been blindly and positively and overwhelmingly certain Tracy Ann is our very own daughter in every way.

That is the greatest miracle of adoption. You don't wonder or doubt afterward. You are wonderfully, wonderfully sure you have done the right thing. You might kind of wish you had done it earlier except for one thing—if you had you might have missed getting the perfect child you now have.

"But aren't you afraid you might get a child with latent defects?" some people inquire.

Well, so far as I know every child born since the beginning of time had latent defects of some kind—of body, mind or temperament, which show up sooner or later. That's no sound reason either for fearing to have a child, or to adopt one.

Look at the world of grownups around you. Do you know of a single one without a defect, large or small? But most of them still find life worth living.

As a matter of fact when we got Tracy Ann, her defects were pretty obvious. She couldn't stand up, speak a word of English or even write her own name. All she did was lie in her crib all day kicking her chubby feet in the air, making odd noises and waiting for someone to do something for her.

At the age of 8 she has outgrown these early defects, and acquired others which in time we feel she will outgrow too.

The truth is that those we love endeavor themselves to us almost as much by their small defects as by their shining virtues. And children do a wonderful service for adults. By letting us care for them they tend to cure us of our own defects of selfishness and blind preoccupation with our own interests. They keep our world bright and young.

Distrust Of School Board, Public Apathy, Ignorance Hurt St. Louis' Schools

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—St. Louis has found an enormous rat-hole and is busy shoveling dollars into it.

In March, in May, and again in November last year, the voters turned down a $24.3-million bond issue to build new schools and modernize some of the old ones. They also rejected, three times, a $5.2-million bond issue for school fire protection.

Because the bonds weren't passed, and the schools can't be built, the school system this year is chartering 70 buses to transport 3,600 pupils from their home neighborhoods to schools up to nine miles away.

PAY $233,000 EXTRA
The buses are costing the city $195,000 this school year, plus $40,000 in overtime pay for teachers who supervise the bus rides. This is $233,000 for the 1960-61 school year.

No one seriously argues here that the new schools aren't needed: six elementary schools are at double their normal capacity; 2,000 elementary school pupils are attending classes in high school buildings; 525 elementary pupils are being taught in rented church quarters; some classrooms have as many as 60 pupils.

Then why did the bond issues fail?

Apathy, ignorance, and resistance to taxes were major factors. But in St. Louis it was something more.

DISTRUST OF BOARD

It was distrust of the St. Louis School Board, rocked by scandal and hint of scandal. A racial problem apparently was involved also.

Perhaps most of all, it was a state law requiring that school bond issues must be approved by a two-thirds majority. "We can get 60 per cent," one leading citizen declared, "but that last 6 per cent comes mighty hard."

St. Louis has a population of about 750,000, a drop of more than 100,000 since the 1950 census. Much of the loss can be attributed to the flight to the suburbs, which many American cities are experiencing.

ATTENDANCE INCREASES

But in that same 1950-1960 decade, the average daily attendance in the St. Louis public schools rose from 80,626 to 90,581. Much of this increase has been in Negro pupils, who now make up about 45 per cent of the school population.

Many of St. Louis' problems can be traced directly to the slum clearance project in Mill Creek, a section in the near-downtown area. Negroes from Mill Creek moved en masse to North St. Louis, which had been a predominantly white neighborhood. There weren't enough schools to handle the influx of pupils, and it is these children who now are being taken by buses to other parts of the city.

"DON'T NEED SCHOOLS"
"It's up north where they need the schools," said a housewife in conservative South St. Louis. "We don't need them down here. And if those colored folks think we're going to carry them on our backs, they've got another think coming."

In all three St. Louis elections the school bond issues carried by what, in suburban Parma, Ohio,

MRS. JANE MILLER EAST BERLIN — Brownie Troop 38 won first prize in the window display contest. The display was a replica of Camp Happy Valley, near Fairfield. It was placed in Lau's store window. The money will be used to sponsor an egg hunt and Easter party for the troop Monday, at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Cramer. Nineteen Brownies presented a hobo skit in the Juliette Low Rally held Saturday in the Gettysburg High School. The troop flag bearer was Pamela Eisenhart, color guards Beth Anderman and Judene Cramer. Mothers who accompanied the troop were Mrs. John Whistler and Mrs. Robert Myers.

CONSECUTIVE DEFEATS
But in St. Louis, where it takes 66.6 per cent approval, these are recorded as just three consecutive defeats for the school bonds.

But apathy played a big part, too. In March, the "no" votes of 11.1 per cent of the registered voters were enough to defeat the bonds. In May, it took only 6.7 per cent of the registered voters to block their passage.

In November, the "no" votes of 18.6 of the registered voters were decisive.

"We have to keep trying," said Philip J. Hickey, superintendent of instruction for the St. Louis schools. "We just have to. Things are going to get worse as we go along."

"Our transportation costs will be much higher next year. We expect at least 2,000 new pupils,

ARCHBISHOP ENTHRONED IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Most Rev. John J. Krol Wednesday was enthroned as archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

The 50-year-old native of Cleveland, where he had served nearly eight years as auxiliary bishop, thus formally succeeded the late John Cardinal O'Hara as spiritual head of nearly a million church members.

But his jurisdiction isn't as vast as the late cardinal's. By order of Pope John XXIII, the huge diocese was split almost in half with the five northernmost counties—Berks, Carbon, Lehigh, Northampton and Schuylkill—reconstituted as the Diocese of Allentown.

The big counties in southeastern Pennsylvania—Philadelphia, Montgomery, Bucks, Chester and Delaware—remain under Archbishop Krol, and even in this reduced size is one of the largest Catholic sees in America.

HEADS ALLENTOWN AREA

Bishop Joseph McShea, who ran the Philadelphia Diocese since the death of Cardinal O'Hara last August, will become head of the Allentown Diocese April 11.

Archbishop Krol in his prepared remarks said he accepted the congratulations of all with "a glowing tribute to your deep faith."

"I come to minister and to serve wholeheartedly and unreservedly," he said. "I am fully aware of the tremendous responsibilities to which I have been called. . . . Today I beg God to grant me heavenly light, wisdom and prudence, that I may teach, rule and sanctify the vast flock committed to my care; that his graces will be equal to the burdens imposed upon me."

All three Philadelphia television stations carried the installation ceremonies.

DELEGATE OFFICIATES

Archbishop Egidio Vagnozzi of Washington, apostolic delegate to the United States, officiated. The letter of appointment was read by Monsignor John J. Noone, chancellor of the archdiocese.

Hundreds of Catholic clergy from all sections of the United States and prominent Catholic lay leaders, joined several thousand in the Cathedral of St. Peter and Paul for the dramatic centuries-old ceremony of enthronement.

Following the ceremony, the Buying a USED CAR?

Timely Tips That Can Help Protect Your Investment!

1. Choose your dealer carefully.
2. Buy only from a well established reputable dealer.
3. Buy only from a dealer who maintains his own adequate facilities to service the car you buy.
4. Insist on a WARRANTY in writing that can be "backed-up."

5. BUYING from a NEW CAR DEALER IS YOUR BEST BET. . . . Most new car dealers sell locally owned trade-ins, not Used Cars obtained from Auto Auctions or distress merchandise from large cities.

6. Insist on knowing where the Used Car came from. "Ask who was the previous owner." Most new car dealers will be happy to tell you and invite you to contact the previous owner.

7. New Cars bought from Used Car Dealers . . . REMEMBER, only the New Car Dealer is authorized to extend a FACTORY WARRANTY to a buyer, NO ONE ELSE.

JFK APPEALS TO LABOR AND MANAGEMENT

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has appealed to management and labor to keep the national interest in mind in their disputes.

If they don't cooperate for the general good, the President warned significantly, an impatient federal government will take a greater hand in getting the two sides together.

This was the implicit, clear message in Kennedy's talk Tuesday to a group of top business executives and labor union chiefs. He had called them together to make them policy-making partners in his administration.

WELFARE INVOLVED

"We are going into a critical phase of our national life," Kennedy told the 21-man labor-management public advisory panel. "We want to keep our economy free, we want labor to be free, we want management to be free. And we want to keep the federal government in its proper role."

"But we all, regardless of our politics, we all have to come to the conclusion that the general welfare is involved in every act we take."

BUCKLE DOWN TO TASK

Kennedy appealed first for the group to give "direction to the general movement of wages and prices." This was in addition to his appeals for advice on job and economic problems, machine displacement of workers, foreign trade competition and a host of other administration headaches.

The advisers—including Henry Ford II, auto magnate; George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, and Ralph McGill, publisher of the Atlanta Constitution—buckled down to their job.

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, chairman of the new group, said it was agreed the advisory committee would hold meetings at least once a month, the next session being set for April 3. All meetings will be held at the White House and there will be study between sessions.

"Our competitive position abroad," Kennedy said, "is affected by the wage-price structure here at home. So this is most important in national survival. The problems of structural unemployment, long-range unemployment, are a matter of utmost concern now."

The Chicago White Sox will be putting in their training licks at Sarasota, Fla., this spring for the second time.

HONEST NEGRO GIVEN $10,000

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An unemployed Negro handyman who returned $240,000 he found on the street is $10,000 richer today.

But his wife says: "I hope we never do find any more money." Since finding the money two weeks ago life has been a hectic series of press conferences and telephone calls for Mr. and Mrs. Douglas William Johnson.

But Tuesday the Johnsons got a $10,000 check from Brink's, Inc., the armored truck company that lost the $240,000.

Brink's originally offered Johnson a $90-a-week job and a college scholarship for his eldest son, Richard, 16. Johnson said he didn't want the job and that his son wants to work his way through college.

HAS 2 OTHER SONS

"I have two other sons and I want to be fair to them, too," Johnson said.

Brink's then decided on the $10,000 check. The Johnsons want to buy a new house.

Johnson says he has been bombarded with job offers, letters and phone calls since finding the money — inadvertently dropped from a Brink's truck.

Not all of the letters were com-

ALERT OFFICER KILLS BURGLAR

PITTSBURGH (AP)—An alert policeman shot and killed a burglar early Wednesday in nearby Oakmont.

The victim was identified as Ralph Hardy, Jr., 38, a parolee from Parma Heights, Ohio.

Patrolman John Miceli said he spotted Hardy in the showroom of the Halton Motor Sales Co. Miceli said he fired two warning shots, then shot Hardy just as he jumped through a large show window.

Officers said the cash register had been rifled. They said they found $122 on Hardy.

Hardy had a prison parole card in his wallet. Police said he had several convictions for burglary.

Miceli was called to the showroom by the owner who lived in the rear of the business. The owner said the burglar alarm had gone off.

Oakmont is about 15 miles east of Pittsburgh.

plimentary, he said. About one-fourth suggested he was insane for returning the money — in unmarked $10 and $20 bills.

Co-eds are on the march at the Pennsylvania State University. Whereas the male-female ratio was 8 to 1 in 1930, and 5 to 1 in 1950, it now is 2½ to 1.

Philadelphia Shows Way To Improve Its Transportation

By RUSSELL LANDSTROM
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Philadelphia has done more perhaps than any other major city to improve its transportation problems.

It became evident a few years ago that something had to be done to cut down on commuting by automobile.

So Mayor Richardson Dilworth and his colleagues took bold and pioneering action.

In association with the Pennsylvania and Reading railroads and the railway labor unions, the city formed the non-profit Passenger Service Improvement Corp., which pays an annual $1.5 million in subsidies to rail commuter lines within the city.

BIG FARE REDUCTION

The corporation reports an average fare reduction of 40 per cent on the six branches affected, an average of 25 per cent increase in weekday service, and a steady rise in the number of passengers.

The PSIC aims next to improve the railroad equipment in an effort to make mass rail transportation more attractive.

"I definitely feel that the city's commuter program has improved its effectiveness," said Dilworth.

"We believe that with better equipment—much of that in use 40 or 50 years old—better parking at stations and improved stations, the increases in ridership would have been substantially higher."

CARRY 50,000 DAILY

"All the 15 commuter lines coming into the city now carry approximately 50,000 passengers daily," Dilworth continued. "We believe they have a potential of some 200,000 a day, including thousands who are now using their automobiles and clogging the city's streets."

We also believe that the help the city has given commuter lines thus far is much more economical than simply building new roads.

"It is our hope that through PSIC we can maximize the use of all these commuter lines, not merely those operating within the city and the suburban jurisdictions through which these lines operate."

A railroad spokesman said no speaking in cautious, neutral real, thorough going improvement can come until PSIC benefits for those of a similar organization, are extended to the suburbs, the far suburbs as well as the closer ones.

WANTS PARTNERSHIPS

What the city wants is full-scale partnership with the suburban counties—which have cities and towns such as Chester, Norristown, Coatesville, Doylestown and Lansdale. Separate deals with certain communities have been suggested as a way to get things moving. The city would rather not do it that way.

The suburban counties haven't rushed to embrace the PSIC. Some officials in the counties haven't liked what Philadelphia spokesmen said; others have felt that the city did not say enough, or that too much emphasis was put upon what Philadelphia would get out of it whereas the main suburban question understandably is "What's in it for us?"

FEAR ANNEXATION

Noticeable in some areas, too, is a feeling that Philadelphia is trying to drag in its neighbors into something that might lead to attempted annexation. Some officials are wary of subsidies, fearful they'll get out of hand.

Other reasons for aloofness are: Political considerations which keep rural Republicans and urban Democrats from seeing eye to eye on the problem; and some belief that the railroads have not yet done all they might to help themselves.

Since none of the counties wants to lose any of its transportation facilities, the whole issue turns on ways and means.

NEED SPEED LINES

William A. Welsh, one of Delaware County's commissioners, says he is convinced "the great metropolitan complex cannot exist without high speed rail lines to serve the outlying areas."

In general, though, Delaware County officials and those of Chester—the county's largest city—play it cagey, conferring with David Berger, Philadelphia city solicitor in closed meeting, and speaking in cautious, neutral

WILL FEATURE TWO KENNEDYS IN TWO FILMS

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Hollywood is getting with the Kennedys, too.

Over at Warner Bros. they're plotting "PT Boat 109," which would concern the naval exploits of President Kennedy during World War II in the Pacific. At 20th Century-Fox, Jerry Wald is whipping up a film based on Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's best-selling book, "The Enemy Within."

The attorney general's book was a nonfiction account of his experiences as chief counsel of the Senate Select Committee to Investigate Improper Activities in Labor-Management Relations. As every newspaper reader knows, the chief target of the committee's investigation was the Teamsters Union and its president, James R. Hoffa.

WILL BE FICTIONIZED

So how is Wald going to make a movie out of that?

"People are already asking me why I'm making 'that antilabor picture,'" the producer complained. "It isn't going to be an antilabor picture, any more than it will be an antimanagement picture."

"Naturally we will have to fictionalize to put it in motion picture form. The way I see the story is this: There will be two main figures, one a young worker who is trying to do his job and who wants a better union, but can't fight the corrupt bosses; the other a young guy, a 30-year-old lawyer who is investigating cor-ruptions. They team up to expose the crooks in the union. WON'T NAME KENNEDY

"We won't name Bobby Kennedy, but we may use some device such as the one in 'Boomerang.' That was a true story about Homer Cummings when he was a crusading prosecutor. At the end of the picture there was a note that said the hero of the story had become attorney general of the United States."

Wald said he would follow the same technique of "On the Waterfront," a fiction story based on articles about dock union corruption. In fact, he has engaged the author of the screen play, Budd Schulberg, to write "The Enemy Within."

The producer said he had had talks with the attorney general and the latter agreed that the movie had to be dramatized in order to provide unity. Kennedy has no script approval on the project, for which he is donating his profits to charity.

Westinghouse TV Series Is Planned

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Plans for 18 one-hour television specials on three networks have been announced by the Westinghouse Electric Corp.

The series, called "Westinghouse Presents," is tentatively slated to get under way on Oct. 14 and continue through Sept., 1962.

The company said Tuesday the specials will be built around many of the biggest names in the fields of drama, humor, music, entertainment, world events and public affairs.

The firm also announced a 12-program summer series entitled "Westinghouse Preview Theater," which will replace the current Westinghouse Playhouse starring Nanette Fabray.

15 Communities Consider Switch

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Fifteen southeastern Allegheny County communities have sent a letter to neighboring Westmoreland County commissioners requesting a meeting to discuss the possibility of becoming part of their county.

The letter, sent Tuesday and signed by Theresa C. Stashko, McKeesport city clerk, said, "This is not a fishing expedition. The people in our area have demanded that we explore all avenues and by all means this particular avenue of annexation to your county."

The letter said official representatives from each of the communities and legal counsel would attend the meeting.

Art Dittmar of the New York Yankees has a lifetime record of 15 victories and five losses against the Chicago White Sox.

Franklin C. Wood, director of the Bucks County Planning Commission, figures you have to make the best of what's at your disposal.

So he says: "We are going to lose out in our part of the country if we let the commuter lines go by default."

NEED COMMUTER LINES

At least one member of the Montgomery County Planning Commission said, with his neighbor in Bucks, "we can't get along without the commuter lines."

Partly under PSIC stimulus, and to a large extent because of big increases in rail fares, Montgomery County hired a specialist to look into all its transportation needs.

C. Gilbert Hazlett, chairman of the Chester County commission, said many people in his county are favorably impressed with the potential of PSIC, and that officials are studying the feasibility of linking up with it.

SEE QUICK ACTION FOR LIBRARY BILL

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Senate Democratic leadership promises quick action on a proposal for a statewide library system.

The bill, which aims to improve present libraries and establish them where none now exist, was reported out Tuesday by the Senate Education Committee.

Sen. Jo Hays, D-Centre, committee chairman, said he anticipated quick passage of the bill. He added that he would accept no amendments because the measure, in his words, had been whipped into shape when it passed the House.

Incidentally 40 Republicans helped the House Democratic majority give the bill a good margin two weeks ago.

CALLED "MILESTONE"

Majority Leader Charles R. Weiner told the Senate the measure will go down as "one of the milestones" of the 1961 session.

He asked the senators to give the bulky bill careful study during the legislature's Easter recess, ending April 4.

The proposal, sponsored by Gov. Lawrence's administration, would provide a system of state aid to libraries which put up matching funds. It also calls for district, regional, county and local libraries.

The governor has earmarked $500,000 to get the program started in 1961-62. If all potential libraries take part, state expenditures in future years could total some $6 million annually.

Man Killed In Auto Accident

GREENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—An auto smashed against a building, then hit a parked truck Wednesday on Route 119 two miles south of Greensburg, killing a passenger and injuring three others in the car.

Killed was Ernest Wise, 28, of Greensburg.

Admitted to Westmoreland County Hospital were John Shimshock, 30, of South Greensburg, the driver; Ruth Ann Sprung, 18, of Greensburg, and Nancy Ames, 18, of R. 2 Russdale near Greensburg.

Police said the auto went into a spin on the highway, slammed against a building, then rolled over and hit the truck.

What to do till the doctor comes

Emergencies strike with sudden swiftness. A slip, a fall, a collision is seldom announced. So be prepared. At least one member of every family should have a working knowledge of first aid. These are books on the subject and the American Red Cross gives classes where such information and training can be acquired. We recommend that you, or someone in your household, acquire the know-how. Another worthy recommendation is to maintain a supply of first-aid medications on hand at all times—antiseptic, gauze bandages, adhesive tape, alcohol, soothing creams, etc. The cost is small and we'll be glad to assist you in your selection.

Coats Stage Comeback In A Blaze Of Color Glory

There's a wonderful excuse to buy a new spring coat this year! No matter how smart your old coat may be — dollars to doughnuts, it's not in one of the exciting bold pastels that are the hallmarks of the new season coats.

The spring coat is back! And coat collections reflect an entirely new aspect of color, fabric and design.

Shoulders are widened with a rounded motion — semifitted coats often reveal dramatic cape-effects in the back — elbow skimming sleeves offer a new freedom of movement. Coats with full five-yard sweep are almost full circles and are kisser cousins to capes in their detailing.

Slim coats with rounder backs and broader back step forth in double breasted models.

Full-looking coats with straight backs are here to give milder a brilliant, elegant look.

The collarless, cardigan styled coat — a la Chanel is the new-maker fashion. The wedding ring collar, halo collar and scarf stole are all flattering and feminine looking for almost every woman.

HEAVENLY FLEECE

Heavenly fleeces spongy looped mohairs, suiting-weight knits, ottomans, crisp, dry mon-tones and checked, plaid and color-with-color tweeds are the fabric wonders of the new season.

And — there's never been such delectable color variety in the gayest Easter egg collections as there is in coats.

Picture hot pink and lovely lilac, strawberry, orange, apricot, azalea . . . look for pistachio, citron, yellows, a gamut of clear reds and a galaxy of vivid blues.

White is the purest white ever, and blacks sparkle in new weaves that look like they've been waxed and polished.

These yummy colors run from palest but sparkling neutrals to the brightest of the bright — to make the color story in coats a veritable kaleidoscope of exciting mood hues.

Men's Footwear Steps Out In Neatly-Defined Styles

Men's clothing for spring has inspired an abundance of new casual footwear in light airy leathers and bright spring colors.

Lightness of weight and appearance characterize the casual and dress shoe types. Light porous leathers soles are preferred, even in playshoes. The uppers are made of new spring-weight leathers for that "walking in the clouds" feeling.

New casual shoes are dubbed "carefree" by shoe designers because they're made for care-free living and because the leathers, such as washable white and scuff-resistant smooth and grained leathers, are easy to care for.

PEBBLE GRAIN

White in a distinctive pebble grain, is used on casual tie styles and slip-ons — the latter sometimes decorated with a golf-shoe kiltie on the tongue. White is also combined with brown or black or both casual and dress shoes to complement light slacks and sport coats.

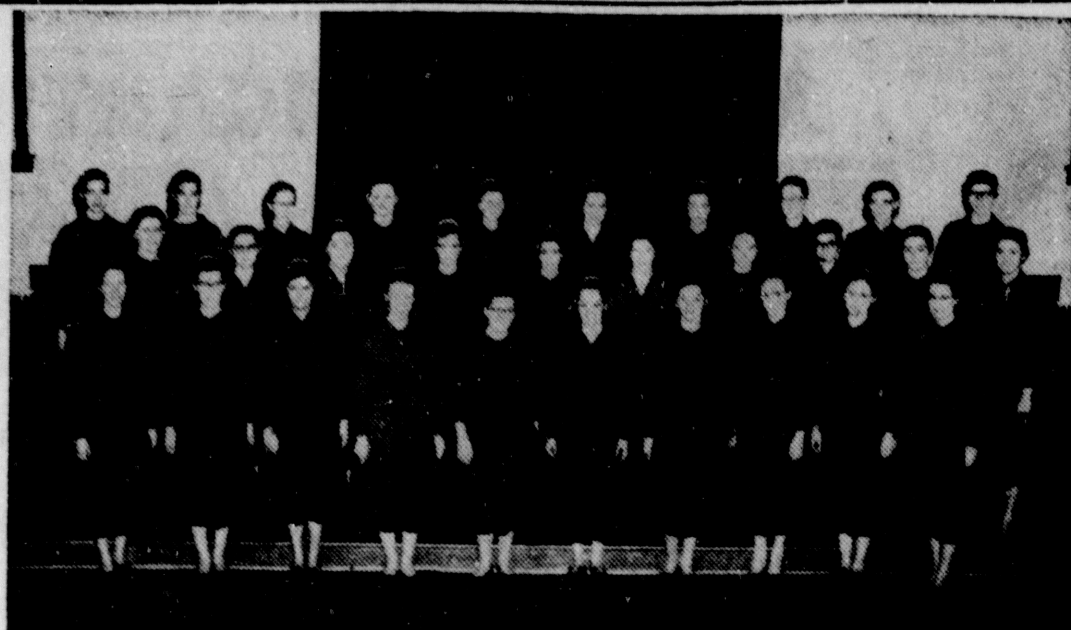

Brown leather colors are new this spring in hawthorn — a darkish brown shade usually in grain leather; dark oak — a blackened brown with a subtle bronze undertone; maverick — a medium brown with a slight greenish undertone; gaucho — a cool tan to-bacco tone, especially popular combined with white and American burgundy — a deep cordovan color that goes with almost any color suit or slacks. Burnished olive and ivy — both with a hint of green — join loden green leather shoes to make up a new, smart color family.

HAS WAXY-FINISH

Polished, waxy-finish fine grain and shrunken-grain leathers are seen on casual slip-ons. These have moc toes with raised stitching on the vamp or traveling on back to heel. Some have straps across the tongue, either loose or fastened down with stitching, brass rings or fancy cut leather loops. Leather linings offer "backing" to shoes and comfort to feet.

Town slip-ons are seen with plain toes or in moc toes styles in which the stitching forms a flat reverse seam-played down effect that goes well with the restrained styles in business and casual apparel. A whole new type of slip-on is the wing-tip, which offers the convenience of the slip-on but looks like the business man's elegant wing blucher.

Ralph Hostetter, of the college staff, will also accompany the chorus.

SHOE HONORS DIVIDED

Dress shoes honors are divided between moc-fronts and wing-tips, and in both styles the emphasis is on lightness. Three or four eyelets styles are favored but even the traditional six-eyelet shoes are lightened by use of trimmer leather soles and have fewer perforations.

open elastic bands that improve the fit of slip-ons — has spilled over from casual to dress styles. Collegians and young executives alike are seen in handsome, high-rising slip-ons with side gores or "boxer" tops.

NEW YORK (AP) — After six years of scientific research, the tobacco industry reports it has found no evidence of any link between smoking and lung cancer.

The statement came Tuesday from the scientific advisory board of the industry's research committee.

"Perhaps the most significant development has been the general recognition that we do not yet have the answers," the statement said.

THREE SISTERS MAY OVERCOME BLURRED VIEW

NEW YORK (AP) — In three weeks, Jennie Hull will open her eyes, and she will know.

She will see as others see, or the world around her will be blurred — as it has been for nearly 20 years.

This is the outlook for Mrs. Hull, 57, of Bradford, Pa. Her two sisters — Lorraine Schell, 51, of Garden City, N.H., and Reva Schneider, 44, of Miami, Fla. — face the same outlook. They were to be operated on today.

Mrs. Hull underwent surgery Tuesday.

The sisters all have corneal dystrophy, an affliction that has plagued four generations of the Charles Specht family.

HOPE FOR SISTERS

"We see the world blurred," Mrs. Schell explained. "It's as though there's a piece of gauze over our eyes. At home in Emporium, Pa., when we were young, grandpa Specht had it. He was blind when he died. And mama, Carrie Goss, had it, too."

But there is hope for the sisters. Through the Eye-Bank for Sight Restoration Inc. at the Manhattan Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital, the sisters made arrangements to receive corneas left by donors. All were to have been operated on Tuesday.

But there was only one eye available — from a young man of 29 who had died.

PARIS, Ky. (AP) — Two sea-gulls — lost or just sightseeing — flapped over Paris Tuesday.

Legislature May Postpone Reapportionment, School Aid

HARRISBURG (AP) — Will the 1961 legislature postpone action on reapportionment and education until next fall or even next year?

Three alternatives to action before summer on these controversial issues are being discussed among the rank-and-file members of the General Assembly:

Recess in late May or June until September to allow time to let the issues jell.

Adjournment in late spring, with Gov. Lawrence calling a special session to convene in the fall to take up these two problems.

Adjournment in late spring or early summer, with reapportionment and education made the subject of a special session to run concurrently with the 1962 session.

Next year's session will be limited under the law to fiscal matters.

SPECULATION INCREASES

Whether any of these three plans are under active consideration by the legislative leaders was not known. But speculation about one of them being adopted is being heard with increasing frequency in the legislative chambers these days.

It may just be wishful thinking. Many legislators are admittedly bored with the current session.

The consensus of the legislators seems to be that most of the excitement has gone from this session since the administration's tax program was pushed through the House in late January.

The program evinced little excitement in the Senate, where it was passed piecemeal through February and March.

STILL IN SENATE

One part of the package—eliminating the commission kept by merchants for collecting the sales tax—is still before the Senate.

Congressional action that would have a bearing on the reapportionment and education issues was cited as one reason for the state legislature postponing its own decisions in these fields.

One possible action by Congress would be to increase the number of seats in the U. S. House of Representatives. This would reduce the number of seats Pennsylvania would lose under the 1960 census. At present, the state must reduce its congressional representation from 30 to 27 and absorption of these three seats under the present close balance between the two major parties presents the big problem for reapportionment.

STATE REAPPORTIONMENT

The state House and Senate also should be reapportioned in line with the 1960 census.

Congress also has pending a proposed $2.3 billion federal aid to education program.

Gov. Lawrence expressed the hope at his news conference Tuesday that Pennsylvania "will get plenty out of Washington, so that we won't have to do so much here."

The governor's Committee on Education is expected to make its own recommendations on overhauling the state's educational structure around April 1.

Sen. Charles R. Weiner, Democratic floor leader, also was reported working on reapportionment legislation.

EASTER RECESS

It may be that these two developments would rekindle the spark in the session and put aside talk about postponing the issues.

The legislature was in recess today until after Easter.

In action Tuesday: Library Aid—The Senate Education Committee approved, without change, the House-passed bill setting up a statewide, state-aided library system. This was backed by the administration.

Reapportionment—Weiner said the groundwork is being laid out for legislation of reapportionment of the House, Senate and Congressional Districts.

OPEN MEETING

"So far all we have done is draw lines on maps," said Weiner. He said no legislation is expected to be introduced in the near future with administration backing. One congressional apportionment measure has been introduced in the Senate.

Open Meetings—Legislation was introduced in the House requiring the Fish and Game Commission meetings to be open to the press. They are presently exempt from the terms of the 1957 Open Meetings Law.

Court Administrators—A bill was introduced in the Senate to provide court administrators for Philadelphia and Allegheny counties.

The measure is designed to relieve judges of responsibility for business operations of the court, allowing them to devote their time to judicial matters.

Mining—The House passed legislation aimed at curbing subsidence in hard coal regions. It would require operators to take certain steps and fulfill certain requirements for avoiding future subsidence. It gives local government officials the power to see to it that the act is obeyed.

The New York Rangers won only six out of 50 National Hockey League games during the 1943-44 season.
